TRIAL CHAMBER

TO: Civil Party Lead Co-Lawyers, Case 002

Date: 23 November 2011

FROM: Judge NIL Nonn, Trial Chamber President

CC: All Trial Chamber Judges; Trial Chamber Senior Legal Officer

SUBJECT: Advance notice of assignment of examination of three Civil Parties during first trial segment (5-16 December 2011)

As indicated in the Senior Legal Officer's memorandum to the parties of 18 November 2011 (E141), the President may, by memorandum, assign to the Co-Prosecutors, individual Defence teams or Civil Party Lead Co-Lawyers the primary responsibility for examining specified witnesses, experts or Civil Parties at trial. While the President will take the initial role in questioning and will cover introductory matters, the bulk of the questioning will then be left to the Lead Co-Lawyers or the parties as relevant.

The Trial Chamber by this memorandum assigns to the Civil Party Lead Co-Lawyers primary responsibility for the examination of the three Civil Parties identified in Confidential Annex B (E131/1.2) who may be heard during this first trial segment. The Chamber reminds the Lead Co-Lawyers that their examination shall be limited to facts relevant to the first trial and of the Civil Parties' suffering stemming from these facts. Witnesses to be heard during the first trial segment will also in due course be limited to topics relevant to that trial.

If it is considered that these Civil Parties ought also to comment on other matters, an oral application to this effect may be made to the Trial Chamber, who will determine whether it is in the interests of effective trial management to hear these Civil Parties also on other topics. However, the Chamber advises that such applications shall only rarely be granted.

The Lead Co-Lawyers should be prepared to commence the examination of these three Civil Parties as early as 5 December 2011, as it is presently unclear as to whether any Accused in Case 002 will answer questions. In this case, the Chamber intends to move directly to the hearing of the witnesses and Civil Parties identified in E131/1.2.
