DECISION

[1] Henry, J.: The parties Maudrie Wilson-Williams and Stanley Williams are husband and wife. Mr. Williams transferred a parcel of land to his wife and brother Bertie Wilson in 1987¹ by Deed of ¹On 25th September.

Conveyance 2459 of 1987. Bertie Wilson has since passed away. Mrs. Williams claims that her Christian name and her husband's were incorrectly entered on the Deed as 'Marjorie' and 'Standley' respectively. She has brought a claim to have those errors corrected. Mr. Williams did not oppose the claim.

ISSUE

[2] The issue is whether the parties' Christian names in the Deed of Conveyance should be corrected?

ANALYSIS

Issue - Should the parties' Christian names in the Deed of Conveyance be corrected?

[3] The facts of this case are undisputed. Both parties testified. Mrs. Williams produced copies of the Deed of Conveyance, death certificate in respect of Bertie Wilson, and Mr. Williams' and her birth certificates containing the Christian names 'Maudrie' and 'Stanley' respectively. Mr. Williams produced a copy of his national identity card identifying him as 'Stanley Joseph Williams' and testified that the assertions made by Mrs. Williams are factual.

[4] Section 17 (c) of the Registration of Documents Act, ('the Act')² empowers the court to make an order correcting any imperfections in a deed registered pursuant to its provisions. Having heard the parties, I am satisfied that their testimony establishes that their Christian names were erroneously entered in the subject Deed of Conveyance as 'Marjorie' and 'Standley' respectively instead of their correct names of 'Maudrie' and 'Stanley'. In those circumstances, it is just that the Deed of Conveyance be corrected to reflect their correct Christian names.

It is ordered that:-

1. The claim to rectify Deed of Conveyance No. 2459 of 1987 is granted.

² Cap. 132 of the Revised Laws of Saint Vincent and the Grenadines, 2009

2. Deed of Conveyance No. 2459 of 1987 made between 'Standley' Williams of the One Part and Bertie Wilson and 'Marjorie' Williams of the Other Part be and is hereby rectified by replacing the Christian name:
 - (a) 'Standley' with the name 'Stanley'; and
 - (b) 'Marjorie' with the name 'Maudrie';wherever they appear in the Deed.
3. The Registrar of Deeds is directed to rectify the Deed of Conveyance No. 2459 of 1987 by making the corrections in sub-paragraph 2 of this order.
4. No order as to costs.
