PURSUANT to Article 359 of the Criminal Procedure Code² (hereinafter “CPC”) on this 30th day of October 2013, in open court and in the presence of the Accused, his Defence Counsel and the EULEX Special Prosecutor, the Court renders and announces the following

JUDGMENT

A.B., with personal details above, in detention since 17 April 2012 is found as follows:

Pursuant to Article 363 paragraph 1 (1.1) of the CPC,

² Criminal No. 04/L-123

Count 1: REJECTED because the prosecutor withdrew the charge during the main trial;

Further, pursuant to Article 365 of the CPC,

Count 2: GUILTY of Smuggling of Migrants under Article 138 paragraph 1 of the Criminal Code of Kosovo (hereinafter “CCK”), in co-perpetration under Article 23 of the CCK.

BECAUSE the Accused, A.B, engaged in the smuggling of migrants, mostly of Turkish origin, from Kosovo to Croatia and Slovenia and onwards to their final destination in Italy and other EU countries, including Hungary, Austria, Germany, and other countries in Western Europe. Specifically:

1. Between 5 February 2012 and 25 February 2012, A.B smuggled a group of six Turkish migrants illegally from Croatia into Slovenia, with Italy as the intended destination. These migrants were identified as Z.G, born 30.10.1973, A.G, born 14.7.1997, M.G, 25.8.1994, B.G, born 2.10.2008, and G.K, born 1.6.1967.

The planning of the criminal offence began on 5 February 2012, when A.B entered into an agreement with ‘N’, a recruiter and main organizer on a transnational level, to regularly smuggle migrants through Montenegro and Croatia into Slovenia and Italy. After this agreement, A.B contacted other members of the criminal group from 6 to 19 February 2012 in order to get them prepared. These members included Z.G in Croatia, Sh.B in Italy, Av (last name unknown) in Kosovo, and an unidentified member of the group in Montenegro. Av would work with A.B in Kosovo to co-ordinate the drivers and Z.G would take care of transportation of the migrants in Croatia towards Slovenia, while Sh.B would oversee their onward crossing into Italy and transportation thereafter.

The planning of the operation was further concretized on 21 February 2012, when A.B entered into a direct agreement with L.K, a main organizer on a level above 'N' in the same organized criminal group, to smuggle a group of six persons in the next days. These six migrants were Turkish citizens Z.G, A.G, M.G, B.G and G.K. L.K informed A.B that the migrants consisted of a family of five adults and one seven year old child. He agreed to the smuggling of these persons from Zagreb, Croatia to Italy. Other members of the wider transnational criminal group had already transported them from Turkey to Croatia, where A.B would take over. The migrants were each charged 1,400 euros for their transportation from Croatia through Slovenia to Italy alone.

While L.K was the direct and main contact point for A.B, the overall direction was given by her husband O.K, the leader of the criminal group. This is demonstrated by L asking for permission from O while talking on the phone with A.B about the forthcoming operation. A.B also received instructions directly from O.K regarding the smuggling of this specific group of migrants. In particular, O.K enquired about the drivers, the timing and modalities of the movement of the migrants and entry into the planned destination country, and where the migrants would be accommodated in Rijeka and money that would be taken from them in Croatia. C.K, the brother of O, was also involved in the smuggling arrangements from Turkey and communicated directly with A.B.

A.B's role was to communicate with the transporters from Croatia to Slovenia to Italy, the crucial stages of the migrants' journey, given that these were the stages that the crime was concretised by the illegal crossing of borders into EU states. In doing so, A. B spoke with M.C. M.C organized the drivers directly, communicating back to A.B frequently to gain instructions and agree money arrangements. Moreover, A.B arranged for accommodation of the migrants in Opatija, Croatia, in the "Hotel Opatija" run by G.N, another member of the group in Croatia who also works with M.C.

In addition, A.B was involved in the activities in Slovenia with his associate known as R.L who contributed to the commission of the offence as a driver for the group from Slovenia to Italy.

On the evening of 23 February 2012, the migrants departed from Zagreb, Croatia to Rijeka, Croatia in two groups. Some of the group went by taxi for 350 euros from Zagreb to Rijeka, while the remainder went by bus after A.B expressed his concern to L.K that they would be caught if they all travelled by taxi at night. In Rijeka they were met by the drivers organized by M.C, who took them to "Hotel Opatija" run by G.N. The migrants were made to pay 200 euros for staying one night. On 24 February 2012, A.B discussed the final arrangements with M.C for transportation of the migrants from Rijeka, Croatia to Slovenia and onwards to Italy. M.C and another associate travelled to Rijeka that evening in order to be ready to transport the migrants the next morning.

On 25 February 2012, at around 05:00hrs, M.C and another driver picked-up the migrants from Hotel Opatija. At this point, the migrants were made to hand over another 1,200 euros to the drivers (500 euro to one, 700 euro to the other). Three migrants travelled in each of the two vehicles towards the Croatian border with Slovenia. The border was in fact crossed at Starod, with the migrants entering into Slovenia illegally at some time before 11:00hrs.

Around 11:00hrs that day, the migrants were met by another driver in a Mercedes vehicle at Račice, Ilirska Bistrica region, Slovenia, who was secured by A.B to bring them to Italy. The prior plan had been to bring them to Udine, Italy, but on the day the driver took them towards Trieste, Italy.

The migrants Z.G, A.G, M.G, B.G and G.K, were all stopped at a police control point as they illegally crossed into Italy between 11:00 and 13:00hrs and were deported to Slovenia where they were arrested by the Slovenian Police in the Ilirska Bistrica region.

The ages and identities of the migrants' accord with the factual circumstances communicated in the intercepted calls of A.B, namely that the migrants were a family including a child. Notably, the youngest child of the group (B.G) was only 3 years of age at the time of the events, even younger than the 7-8 years old indicated. In addition, three other children were also smuggled since R. G was 13 years old, A.G 14 years old and M.G 17 years old at the time. Only two members of the group were adults (Z.G, 38, and G.K, 44).

2. Between 26 February 2012 and 10 March 2012, A.B smuggled two migrants illegally from Croatia into Slovenia, with Italy as the intended destination. These migrants were identified as H.K, Turkish citizen, born 4.5.1984 (then aged 27 years), and G.K, Kosovo citizen, born 2.2.1991 (then aged 21 years).

The planning of the criminal offence began on 26 February 2012, when A.B agreed to smuggle G.K from Kosovo to Italy. Further, on 27 February 2012, A.B agreed with the K brothers to transport two Turkish migrants from Zagreb, Croatia to Italy. The migrants had already been transported from Turkey to Croatia by other members of the transnational organized criminal group. On 6 March 2012, O.K called A.B personally, at which point it was clarified that one Turkish migrant would be going. This migrant to be smuggled was H.K. Later that day, A.B agreed with L.K that H would be transported at the same time as the migrant from Kosovo.

A.B's main role was to communicate with the transporters from Croatia to Slovenia to Italy, the stages that the crime was again concretised by the illegal crossing of borders into EU states. In doing so, A.B discussed the activities in Croatia with M.C, who organized the drivers. A.B also tasked G.N, who provided accommodation at "Hotel Opatija" near Rijeka, Croatia. M and G also reported to Z.M, a manager for the criminal group in Croatia.

Furthermore, A.B worked with Sh.B, Kosovo citizen, T.H, Kosovo citizen and H.B, Serbian citizen living in Montenegro who served as the guides and transporters. These three members of the group directly accompanied the migrants along the journey. They also illegally entered Slovenia themselves.

The migrant departed from Rijeka, Croatia to Slovenia on 8 March 2012, crossing illegally into the region of Ilirska Bistrica, Slovenia by boat to the vicinity of Koper. They continued their journey towards Italy by night on 9 March 2012, in an effort to avoid the border police.

A.B directly communicated with the migrants along the way, telling them in precise detail where to cross between Slovenia and Italy. From these communications, the illicit nature of the entry is extremely clear. For example, he instructed the migrant not to jump over a fence but to walk around it across railway tracks, since there were guard dogs. He further directed the migrants to walk through pine trees towards Italy, indicating that they were entering Italy via an illegal crossing point through the forest.

The migrants H.K, and G.K, as well as the transporters Sh.B, H.B, T.H were all stopped at a police control point as they illegally crossed into Italy in the early hours of 10 March 2012. They were deported to Slovenia where they were arrested by the Slovenian Police in the Ilirska Bistrica region.

From intercepted communications in the aftermath of the arrests, the role of Sh.B, H.B, T.H as transporters for the criminal group was revealed. They were housed in a camp for illegal immigrants in Croatia together with the two migrants, since their entry was also unauthorized. T.H and G.K were released and deported to Kosovo on 15 March 2012, while Sh.B was released and deported on 16 March 2012. Notably, the illegal nature of their activities in Croatia is demonstrated from A.B's suggestion to Sh.B to come up with an excuse for their presence in Croatia for the Kosovo Border Police upon arrival at Pristina airport which was not true.

Photographic surveillance of A.B by EULEX Police on 12 March 2012 further corroborates the evidence of his involvement in this smuggling operation, since he is photographed collecting T.H and G.K from Pristina airport.

3. Between 24 February 2012 and 16 March 2012, A.B smuggled four migrants illegally from Kosovo through Montenegro and Croatia into Slovenia, with Italy as the intended destination. These migrants were identified as Ars.B, Kosovo citizen, born 25.5.1985 (age 26), M.H, Kosovo citizen, born 30.11.1980 (then aged 31), R.J, Kosovo citizen, born 15.5.1987 (then aged 24), and A.K, Kosovo citizen, born 1.11.1983 (then aged 28).

Planning of the smuggling operation began on 24 February 2012, when A.B received a call from “V”, a member of his group in Kosovo, informing him that four migrants had been recruited (referred to as “four vehicles” in coded language) and they were ready to be transported from Kosovo abroad. Overall, A.B reported to O.K for the operation. The migrants were each charged 2,500 euros for their transportation from Kosovo through Montenegro, Croatia and Slovenia to Italy alone. They left this amount with I (last name unknown) in Kosovo, as security, until their transportation into Europe was completed.

A.B’s main role was to communicate with the transporters from Croatia to Slovenia to Italy, the stages that the crime was again concretised by the illegal crossing of borders into EU states. In doing so, A.B discussed the activities in Croatia with M.C, who organized the drivers. A.B also tasked G.N, who provided accommodation at “Hotel Opatija” near Rijeka, Croatia. M and G also reported to Z.M, a manager for the criminal group in Croatia.

Furthermore, A.B worked with M.H, Kosovo citizen, I.H, Kosovo citizen, H.B, Serbian citizen living in Montenegro, and R.R, Serbian citizen. I.H, H.B, and R.R served as the guides and transporters from Kosovo onwards, while M.H took care of arrangements on the Italian side. I.H, H.B, and R.R directly accompanied the migrants along the journey. They also illegally entered Slovenia themselves.

In addition, A.B discussed the activities in Montenegro, a transit country, with his associate known as “Cu” who contributed to the commission of the offence as a driver for the group from Montenegro to Croatia and Slovenia.

The migrants departed Kosovo for Montenegro on or around 14 March 2012. The migrants and transporters stayed with “CU” in Montenegro. A.B told “CU” to ensure that the migrants each give the driver an additional 300 euros and 700 euros to another Montenegrin associate managing the transportation. In the event, the Montenegrin associate in fact took 1,000 euros from the migrants.

From Montenegro, on 15 March 2012, the migrants were driven by two Montenegrin members of the criminal group to Croatia where they were accommodated by G.N at “Hotel Opatija”, near Rijeka. At some point, they switched cars to evade the authorities. They were then taken by ship to Dubrovnik, Croatia. A.B kept in touch with “CU” and the other Montenegrin members of the criminal group along the way, providing continuous directions on the route to take, money arrangements and accommodation. The boat arrived around 09:40hrs on 16 March 2012.

From there, the migrants were taken in the direction of a border crossing in Ilirska Bistrica region, Slovenia. A new driver from Slovenia was told by A.B to wait for the migrants the other side of the Croatia- Slovenian border. The migrants crossed the border on foot on the night of 16 March 2012 and early hours of 17 March 2012. A.B was aware of plans for them to go onwards to cross the border from Slovenia into Italy in the direction of Gorizia, in the Friuli Venezia Giulia region of northeast Italy.

However, the four migrants Ars.B, M.H, R.J, and A.K, as well as the transporters I.H, H.B, and R.R were all caught by the Slovenian police in Ilirska Bistrica and arrested.

4. Between 17 March 2012 and 28 March 2012, A.B smuggled three migrants illegally from Kosovo through Montenegro and Croatia into Slovenia, with Italy as the intended destination. One of the migrants was identified as Bu (last name unknown), Kosovo citizen.

Planning for this smuggling operation began on 17 March 2012, when A.B arranged with a recruiter to send a new group abroad for 2,800 euros per migrant. The recruiter informed A.B that he had overcharged the migrants by 200 euros, but A.B told him he could keep it for himself.

A.B's main role was to communicate with the transporters from Kosovo to Montenegro, Montenegro to Croatia, Croatia into Slovenia and onwards from there into Italy. The crime was concretized by the illegal crossing of the Croatia – Slovenia border and entry into Slovenia and Italy without authorization.

In carrying out the smuggling of the migrants, A.B discussed the activities in Montenegro with an associate named and in Croatia with M.C, each of whom organized the drivers within their respective areas. A.B also tasked G.N and her sister, who provided accommodation at Hotel Opatija near Rijeka, Croatia. M, G and her sister also reported to Z.M, a manager for the criminal group in Croatia.

Furthermore, A.B worked with I.H, and Sh.B who served as the guides and transporters from Kosovo onwards.

On or around 04:00hrs on 22 March 2013, the three migrants departed from Kosovo to Montenegro. They arrived in Budva, Montenegro around 11:00hrs, where they were met by a member of the group in Montenegro at the bus station. They were accommodated for the night by another Montenegrin associate. The next day, they were driven to Dubrovnik, Croatia where they were met by another transporter. A.B told his associate known as “K.H” in Montenegro to ensure that each of the migrants gave the driver 300 euro at Budva and another 100 euro each when they arrived in Dubrovnik. The group crossed the Croatia – Slovenia border on or around 27 March. Thereafter, they were to travel onwards into Italy with another driver. However, the migrants were arrested by the Slovenian Police and deported to Kosovo.

THEREFORE, by reason of the aforesaid, the Court imposes the following sentence:

Having been found guilty under Count 2 of Smuggling of Migrants under Article 138 paragraph 1 of the CCK the Accused is sentenced to a term of imprisonment of 3 (three) years.

Pursuant to Article 73 paragraph 1 of the CCK the time spent in detention from 17 April 2012 to the date hereof shall be credited towards the sentence.

Pursuant to Articles 451, 453 and 450 of the CPC the Accused shall reimburse the costs of the criminal proceedings, assessed in the sum of 100 (one hundred) Euros.

Any property claim shall be pursued through the civil courts.

This Judgment may be announced in the press and public media.

2012, the Prosecutor filed an amended indictment to include an additional defendant, F.A, in the same proceedings.

The Accused herein was investigated as part of the same case, referred to as “PINK”.

This case was investigated by a Joint Investigation Team consisting of investigators from both EULEX Police Organised Crime Investigation Unit (OCIU) and Kosovo Police Department of Organised Crime (DOC).

On 10th May 2011, the SPRK received an International Legal Assistance (ILA) Request from the District Public Prosecutor in Ljubljana, Republic of Slovenia³ regarding a suspect to be identified as Ok.A.

On 11th July 2011, the Prosecutor issued a Ruling of Initiation against Ok.A.

On 11 January 2012 and 11 July 2012, the Pre-Trial Judge granted the extension of the investigation for another six months.

On 14 December 2011, the Prosecutor issued a Ruling on Expansion of the Investigation to B.F. On 15 June 2012, the Pre-Trial Judge granted the extension of the investigation against suspect F for another six months. The investigation against him expired on 14 December 2012.

On 20 January 2012, the Prosecutor issued a third Ruling on Expansion of the Investigation to F.A. Following an extension, the investigation against him was to expire on 20 January 2013.

On 20 January 2012, the Prosecutor issued a Ruling on Expansion of the Investigation to Ag.M who was later re-identified as A.B.

³ Reference TPP-S-1 27/2010 – DŠ dated 21st April 2011

On 21 March 2012, the Prosecutor issued a Ruling on Expansion of the Investigation to A.B. On 20 September 2012, the Pre-Trial Judge granted the extension of the investigation for another six months. The investigation against him was previous set to expire on 21 March 2013 but pursuant to Article 159 (1) of the KCCP, Law 04/L-123 of 2012, shall expire on 21 March 2014 (2 years from initiation of the investigation).

Other suspects were part of the same case and the investigation against them is ongoing. Most relevant to this defendant, aside from the above, are A.C, Ak.M, M.B, and A.M who are also in detention on remand, and N.N who is detained in Croatia upon a request for extradition.

ILA Requests have also been issued by the EULEX Prosecutor to Slovenia, Croatia, Italy and Turkey regarding this case, while international police co-operation has also included several other countries in Europe. Initial responses have been received from Slovenia, Croatia and Italy at this point. Further responses are still expected from each of these countries as well as those involved in operation 'Fimathu'. Most relevant to the defendant A.B is the response from Croatia.

Six operations were undertaken in Kosovo in furtherance of this case. These actions were linked to operations in other countries against other suspected members of the organised criminal group, in particular, in Slovenia, Croatia and Italy in 2012 and many other countries as part of 'operation Fimathu' conducted under the umbrella of Europol on 29 January 2013.

On 16 April 2012, the EULEX Pre-Trial Judge granted an Order for Arrest against A.B and a Search Order for his residence. On 17 April 2012, the Joint Investigation Team conducted so-called "Operation PINK", which resulted in the arrest of A.B. The main trial commenced on 28 October 2013 at the Basic Court in Prizren. At the commencement of the main trial the Prosecutor informed the court of discussions between the parties regarding a possible plea agreement. At the request of the parties the Trial Panel adjourned the main hearing in order for those discussions to continue. On 30 October 2013 the prosecutor filed in court a plea agreement signed by the parties.

B. INDICTMENT

The Defendant was charged in two counts in the Indictment.

Under Count 1 (Organised Crime) it was averred that:

O.K is suspected to be the leader of one organised criminal group that organised the illegal transportation of persons from Turkey through Kosovo, Serbia, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Montenegro, Croatia, Slovenia and onto Italy. He co-ordinated the recruitment, transportation, transit, accommodation, hiding, and other movements and payments by the migrants, mostly of Turkish origin, from Turkey, through Kosovo, Serbia, the Former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia, Montenegro, Bosnia and Herzegovina, and Croatia and onwards to their final destination in Slovenia, Italy, Hungary, Austria, Germany, France and other countries in Western Europe. He maintained contact with the migrants throughout their transportation from the country of origin, and during transit through the Balkans until they reached their final destination. He also supervised and directed the activities of other members of the group, particularly C.K, L.K, "N" and A.B.

It was averred that the Accused was a mid-level organizer of the smuggling of migrants and people transporter, a key contact and worker of O. K, L.K and "N". In particular, his role was to find, arrange, plan, and co-ordinate drivers, guides and other transporters to bring the illegal migrants across state borders and facilitate their passage through the transit countries. He was particularly active in the part of the route through Croatia into Slovenia and Slovenia into Italy, including to Trieste and Udine. He had a strong relationship with other managers of the group in Croatia in particular, especially Z.G, M.C, Z.M, G.N and N.P who had various responsibilities including transporting the migrants and providing their accommodation.

I.H, M.H("B"), T.H, Sh.B, who were A.B's inner circle from Kosovo, who also operate in Italy, Croatia and Slovenia serve as transporters and guides and are also actively involved in the transfer of payments between members of the criminal group in Kosovo and abroad.

The main transit route is from Turkey to Kosovo through Montenegro, Croatia, and Slovenia, with Italy as the destination.

The migrants were recruited by L.K other contacts in Turkey, who relied on 'N' to manage their passage from Turkey, across at least three different transit routes, and on to destination countries. "N" is of Albanian ethnicity, citizenship unclear – living in Turkey but moves between Turkey, Greece, FYROM and Kosovo amongst other countries. He is a key recruiter and organiser of the smuggling.

N relies on the support of A.C, a key participant in the criminal group in Kosovo who manages, procures, provides and facilitates the provision of identity and travel documents and other paperwork for the illegal crossing of the migrants over the borders of Kosovo and other states, including Croatia, Slovenia, Italy and Austria. This primarily includes the creation of invitation letters from hosts within Kosovo and the other countries to facilitate their entry into those countries. Most of these documents are fraudulent or otherwise falsified, with the hosts having no relationship with the migrants they are purportedly inviting to stay and paid to assist the commission of the offences in such a manner.

The smuggling of migrants from Turkey into Kosovo and thereafter to Croatia, Slovenia, Italy, and other countries, required the co-ordination of several persons acting in concert as an organised criminal group. Indeed, the concurrent following factors indicate that such criminal offences are planned, orchestrated and supervised by a structured group of more than three persons: (i) the cross-border character of the criminal offences; (ii) the regularity of the incoming and outgoing groups of migrants and the large number of migrants transported; (iii) the structured group has operated in Kosovo and beyond since at least 2011; and (iv) the amount of money demanded from the migrants has generated substantial financial benefits for members of the group.

Under Count 2 (Smuggling of Migrants) it was averred that:

The organized criminal group comprised the Accused, O.K, C.K, E.K, L.K, 'N', A.C, N.N, M.B, A.M, I.H, M.H("B"), T.H, Sh.B, N.P, Z.G, M.C, Z.M, G.N, and other unidentified perpetrators who organised the illegal transportation of persons from Turkey through Kosovo, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Montenegro, Croatia, Slovenia and onto Italy. A.B co-ordinated the recruitment, transportation, transit, accommodation, hiding, and other movements and payments by the migrants, mostly of Turkish origin, from Kosovo to Croatia and Slovenia and onwards to their final destination in Italy and other EU countries, including Hungary, Austria, Germany, and other countries in Western Europe

The migrants do not have visas, residence permits, permission to remain or other authorization to enter or thereafter stay on the territory of the European Union (EU), destination countries of Slovenia, Italy, Austria, Germany, Hungary or France.

While in some instances the initial stages of the journey may start by legal means using flights or trains, the group produces fraudulent or falsified invitation letters for the migrants to enter Kosovo, Serbia and other transit countries. The hosts do not have any relationship or familiarity with any of the migrants which they purport to invite to stay, but rather are suspected to receive payment to give the permission or more frequently, the papers were fully falsified by members of the criminal group, in particular A.C on the instruction of N.

After entry to the transit countries, the passports and other travel documents were taken away from the migrants or the migrants were instructed to throw away their passports or such documents themselves. They were then driven or more frequently, forced to walk through forests, across rivers, or other land in order to cross the state borders illicitly, especially at the entry points of Croatia to Slovenia, Slovenia to Italy, Serbia to Hungary and Hungary to Austria. The migrants were often kept outdoors, regardless of the time of day or weather conditions, or their physical condition. In many instances, the migrants are children, increasing their vulnerability and the risk of exploitation. In this manner, the health and security of the migrants is endangered.

Moreover, the criminal group distributed stamps and instructed the migrants to cover up previous refusals of permission to enter the state and orders for deportation with such stamps, in order to increase the chances that they would be able to enter the transit and destination countries without alerting the authorities as to their illegal status. In some instances, interceptions revealed that the group also provided new or altered passports to the migrants in the origin country, Turkey, so that they could travel unhindered by previous entries on border control systems that had forbidden them to re-enter after previous illegal stays or other criminal activity.

The criminal group demanded significant monetary amounts from each migrant in order to organise and facilitate their entry into and stay in the transit and destination countries and to transport them across multiple countries. In most cases, these amounts were extortionate, for example, 2,500 EUR per migrant for one border crossing, with no correlation to the average cost of travel, accommodation or hospitality in the transit or destination countries and without regard to their economic status. In this way, the migrants were exploited by the criminal group, of which the defendant A.B was a main organiser.

The Indictment referred to four specific periods during which the prosecution averred migrants were smuggled across borders by the organized criminal group that included the Defendant.

5 February 2012 to 25 February 2012

Between 5 February 2012 and 25 February 2012, the Accused, as part of a group consisting of himself, O.K, L.K, C.K, 'N' (last name unknown), Z.G, M.C, G.N, I.H, Av (last name unknown), Sh.B, R.L (alias), smuggled a group of six Turkish migrants illegally from Croatia into Slovenia, with Italy as the intended destination. These migrants were identified as Z.G, born 30.10.1973, A.G, born 14.7.1997, M.G, 25.8.1994, B.G, born 2.10.2008, and G.K, born 1.6.1967.

The planning of the criminal offence began on 5 February 2012, when the Accused entered into an agreement with 'N', a recruiter and main organizer on a transnational level, to regularly smuggle migrants through Montenegro and Croatia into Slovenia and Italy.⁴ After this agreement the Accused contacted other members of the criminal group in the next days (6 to 19 February 2012) to get them prepared. This included Z.G in Croatia, Sh.B in Italy, Av⁵ in Kosovo, and an unidentified member of the group in Montenegro. Av would work with the Accused in Kosovo to co-ordinate the drivers and Z.G would take care of transportation of the migrants in Croatia towards Slovenia, while Sh.B would oversee their onward crossing into Italy and transportation thereafter.

The planning of the operation was further concretized on 21 February 2012, when the Accused entered into a direct agreement with L.K, a main organizer on a level above 'N' in the same organized criminal group, to smuggle a group of six persons in the next days.⁶ These six migrants were Turkish citizens Z.G, A.G, M.G, B.G and G.K. L.K informed the Accused that the migrants consisted of a family of five adults and one seven year old child. He agreed to organize the smuggling of these persons from Zagreb, Croatia to Italy. Other members of the wider transnational criminal group had already transported them from Turkey to Croatia, where the Accused would take over. The migrants were each charged 1,400 euros for their transportation from Croatia through Slovenia to Italy alone.

While L.K was the direct and main contact point for the Accused, the overall direction was given by her husband O.K, the leader of the criminal group. This is demonstrated by L asking for permission from O while talking on the phone with the Accused about the forthcoming operation.⁷ The Accused also received instructions directly from O.K regarding the smuggling of this specific group of migrants. In particular, O.K stepped in to check that the drivers were arranged⁸ the timing and modalities of the movement of the migrants and entry into the planned destination country (intercepted calls of 24/02/2012 at 12:32:46, 24/02/2012 at 15:39:30, 25/02/2012 at 11:27:14), and where the migrants would be accommodated in Rijeka and money that would be taken from them Croatia (intercepted calls of 24/02/2012 at 17:01:28 24/02/2012 at 17:19:10). C.K, the brother of O, was also involved in the smuggling arrangements from Turkey and communicated directly with the Accused (intercepted call of 25/02/2012 at 13:57:35).

The Accused's role was to organize the transporters from Croatia to Slovenia to Italy, the crucial stages of the migrants' journey given that these were the stages that the crime was committed by the illegal crossing of borders into EU states. In doing so, the Accused coordinated the activities in Croatia with M.C. M.C organized the drivers directly, communicating back to the Accused frequently to gain instructions and agree money arrangements.⁹ Moreover, the Accused arranged for accommodation of the migrants in Opatija, Croatia, in "Hotel Opatija" run by G.N, another member of the group in Croatia who also works with M.C.¹⁰

In addition, the Accused co-ordinated the activities in Slovenia with his associate known as R.L who contributed to the commission of the offence as a driver for the group from Slovenia to Italy.¹¹

On the evening of 23 February 2012, the migrants departed from Zagreb, Croatia to Rijeka, Croatia in two groups. Some of the group went by taxi for 350 euro from Zagreb to Rijeka, while the remainder went by bus after the Accused expressed his concern to L.K that they would be caught if they all travelled by taxi at night. In Rijeka they were met by the drivers of M.C, who took them to “Hotel Opatija” run by G.N. The migrants were made to pay 200 euros for staying one night. On 24 February 2012 the Accused made the final arrangements with M.C for transportation of the migrants from Rijeka, Croatia to Slovenia and on to Italy. M.C and another associate travelled to Rijeka that evening in order to be ready to transport the migrants the next morning.

On 25 February 2012, at around 05:00hrs, M.C and another driver picked up the migrants from Hotel Opatija. At this point, the migrants were made to hand over another 1,200 euros to the drivers (500 euro to one, 700 euro to the other). Three migrants travelled in each of the two vehicles towards the Croatian border with Slovenia. The border was in fact crossed at Starod, with the migrants entering into Slovenia illegally at some time before 11:00hrs.

Around 11:00hrs that day, the migrants were met by another driver in a Mercedes vehicle at Račice, Ilirska Bistrica region, Slovenia, who was secured by the Accused to bring them to Italy. The prior plan had been to bring them to Udine, Italy, but on the day the driver took them towards Trieste, Italy.

The migrants Z.G, A.G, M.G, B.G and G.K, were all stopped at a police control point as they illegally crossed into Italy between 11:00 and 13:00hrs and were deported back to Slovenia where they were arrested by the Slovenian Police in the Ilirska Bistrica region.¹²

The ages and identities of the migrants’ accord with the factual circumstances communicated in the intercepted calls of A.B, namely that the migrants were a family including a child. Notably, the youngest child of the group (B.G) was only 3 years of age at the time of the events, even younger than the 7-8 years old indicated. In addition, three other children were also smuggled since R.G was 13 years old, A.G 14 years old and M.G 17 years old at the time. Only two members of the group were adults (Z.G, 38, and G.K, 44). M.G was 17 at the time, so he may have been considered an adult by the criminal group, as indicated by their intercepted communications. Nevertheless, under the applicable law, all persons under 18 years of age are children. This is therefore a relevant aggravating circumstance and demonstrates the vulnerability of the migrant-victims in terms of exploitation.

26 February 2012 to 10 March 2012

Between 26 February 2012 and 10 March 2012 the Accused, as part of a group consisting of himself, O.K, L.K, Z.G, M.C, Z.M, G.N, Sh.B, T.H and H.B, smuggled two migrants illegally from Croatia into Slovenia, with Italy as the intended destination. These migrants were identified as H.K, Turkish citizen, born 4.5.1984 and G.K, Kosovo citizen, born 2.2.1991.

The planning of the criminal offence began on 26 February 2012, when the Accused agreed to smuggle G.K from Kosovo to Italy.¹³ Further, on 27 February 2012, the Accused agreed with the K brothers to transport two Turkish migrants from Zagreb, Croatia to Italy.¹⁴ The migrants had already been transported from Turkey to Croatia by other members of the transnational organized criminal group. On 6 March 2012, O.K called the Accused personally, at which point it was clarified that one Turkish migrant would be going.¹⁵ This migrant to be smuggled was H.K. Later that day, A.B agreed with L.K that H would be transported at the same time as the migrant from Kosovo.¹⁶

The main role of the Accused was to organize the transporters from Croatia to Slovenia to Italy, the stages that the crime was again concretised by the illegal crossing of borders into EU states. In doing so, the Accused coordinated the activities in Croatia with M.C, who organized the drivers. The Accused also tasked G.N, who provided accommodation at “Hotel Opatija” near Rijeka, Croatia. M and G also reported to Z.M, a manager for the criminal group in Croatia.

Furthermore, the Accused worked with Sh.B, Kosovo citizen, T.H, Kosovo citizen and H.B, Serbian citizen living in Montenegro who served as the guides and transporters. These three members of the group directly accompanied the migrants along the journey. They also illegally entered Slovenia themselves.

The migrant departed from Rijeka, Croatia to Slovenia on 8 March 2012, crossing illegally into the region of Ilirska Bistrica, Slovenia by boat to the vicinity of Koper. They continued their journey towards Italy by night on 9 March 2012, in an effort to avoid the border police.

The Accused directly communicated with the migrants along the way, instructing them in precise detail where to cross between Slovenia and Italy.¹⁷ From these communications, the illicit nature of the entry is extremely clear. For example, he instructs the migrant not to jump over a fence but to walk around it across railway tracks, since there were guard dogs.¹⁸ He further directs the migrants to walk through pine trees towards Italy, indicating that they were entering Italy via an illegal crossing point through the forest.¹⁹

The migrants H.K, and G.K, as well as the transporters Sh.B, H.B, T.H were all stopped at a police control point as they illegally crossed into Italy in the early hours of 10 March 2012. They were deported back to Slovenia where they were arrested by the Slovenian Police in the Ilirska Bistrica region.²⁰

From intercepted communications in the aftermath of the arrests, the role of Sh.B, H.B, T.H as transporters for the criminal group was revealed.²¹ They were housed in a camp for illegal immigrants in Croatia together with the two migrants, since their entry was also unauthorized. T.H and G.K were released and deported to Kosovo on 15 March 2012, while Sh.B was released and deported on 16 March 2012. Notably, the illegal nature of their activities in Croatia is demonstrated from A.B's instruction to Sh.B to come up with an excuse for their presence in Croatia for the Kosovo Border Police upon arrival at Pristina airport which was not true.²²

Photographic surveillance of the Accused by EULEX Police on 12 March 2012 further corroborates the evidence of his involvement in this smuggling operation, since he is photographed collecting T.H and G.K from Pristina airport.

24 February 2012 to 16 March 2012

Between 24 February 2012 and 16 March 2012 the Accused, as part of a group consisting of himself, O.K, L.K, Z.G, M.C, Z.M, G.N, Sh.B, I.H, H.B, R.R, V²³, Cu²⁴, Av²⁵, I²⁶, smuggled four migrants illegally from Kosovo through Montenegro and Croatia into Slovenia, with Italy as the intended destination. These migrants were identified as Ars.B, Kosovo citizen, born 25.5.1985, M.H, Kosovo citizen, born 30.11.1980, R.J, Kosovo citizen, born 15.5.1987, and A.K, Kosovo citizen, born 1.11.1983.

Planning of the smuggling operation began on 24 February 2012, when the Accused received a call from "V", a member of his group in Kosovo, informed him that there were four migrants recruited (referred to as "four vehicles" in coded language) and ready to be transported from Kosovo abroad.²⁷ Overall, the Accused reported to O.K for the operation.²⁸ The migrants were each charged 2,500 euros for their transportation from Kosovo through Montenegro, Croatia and Slovenia to Italy alone.²⁹ They left this amount with 'I' in Kosovo, as security, until their transportation into Europe was completed.

The Accused's main role was to organize the transporters from Croatia to Slovenia to Italy, the stages that the crime was again concretised by the illegal crossing of borders into EU states. In doing so, the Accused coordinated the activities in Croatia with M.C, who organized the drivers. The Accused also tasked G.N, who provided accommodation at "Hotel Opatija" near Rijeka, Croatia. M and G also reported to Z.M, a manager for the criminal group in Croatia.

Furthermore, the Accused worked with M.H, Kosovo citizen, I.H, Kosovo citizen, H.B, Serbian citizen living in Montenegro, and R.R, Serbian citizen. I.H, H.B, and R.R served as the guides and transporters from Kosovo onwards, while M.H took care of arrangements on the Italian side. I.H, H.B, and R.R directly accompanied the migrants along the journey. They also illegally entered Slovenia themselves.

In addition, the Accused coordinated the activities in Montenegro, a transit country, with his associate known as "CU" who contributed to the commission of the offence as a driver for the group from Montenegro to Croatia and Slovenia.

The migrants departed Kosovo for Montenegro on or around 14 March 2012. The migrants and transporters stayed with "Cu" in Montenegro. The Accused instructed "Cu" to ensure that the migrants each gave the driver an additional 300 euros and 700 euros to another Montenegrin associate managing the transportation.³⁰ In the event, the Montenegrin associate in fact took 1,000 euros from the migrants.³¹

From Montenegro, on 15 March 2012, the migrants were driven by two Montenegrin members of the criminal group to Croatia where they were accommodated by G.N at “Hotel Opatija”, near Rijeka.³² At some point, they switched cars to evade the authorities.³³ They were then taken by ship to Dubrovnik, Croatia.³⁴ The Accused kept in touch with “Cu” and the other Montenegrin members of the criminal group along the way, providing continuous instructions and directions on the route to take, money arrangements and accommodation.³⁵ The boat arrived around 09:40hrs on 16 March 2012.³⁶

From there, the migrants were taken in the direction of a border crossing in Ilirska Bistrica region, Slovenia.³⁷ A new driver from Slovenia was instructed by the Accused to wait for the migrants the other side of the Croatia- Slovenian border. The migrants crossed the border on foot on the night of 16 March 2012 and early hours of 17 March 2012.³⁸ The Accused had made plans for them to go onwards to cross the border from Slovenia into Italy in the direction of Gorizia, in the Friuli Venezia Giulia region of northeast Italy.³⁹

himself, Z.G, M.C, Z.M, N.P, G.N, Sh.B, I.H, H.B, Ni⁴¹, and a Montenegrin identified as “K.H”, smuggled three migrants illegally from Kosovo through Montenegro and Croatia into Slovenia, with Italy as the intended destination. One of the migrants was identified as Bu⁴², Kosovo citizen.

Planning for this smuggling operation began on 17 March 2012, when the Accused arranged with a recruiter to send a new group abroad for 2,800 euro per migrant.⁴³ The recruiter informed the Accused that he had overcharged the migrants by 200 euro, but the Accused told him he could keep it for himself.

The Accused’s main role was to organize the transporters from Kosovo to Montenegro, Montenegro to Croatia, Croatia into Slovenia and onwards from there into Italy. The crime was concretized by the illegal crossing of the Croatia – Slovenia border and entry into Slovenia and Italy without authorization.

In carrying out the smuggling of the migrants, the Accused co-ordinated the activities in Montenegro with an associate named Ni⁴⁴ and in Croatia with M.C⁴⁵ each of whom organized the drivers within their respective areas. The Accused also tasked G.N and her sister, who provided accommodation at “Hotel Opatija” near Rijeka, Croatia. M, G and her sister also reported to Z.M, a manager for the criminal group in Croatia.⁴⁶

Furthermore, the Accused worked with I.H, and Sh.B who served as the guides and transporters from Kosovo onwards.

On 30 October 2013 the prosecutor amended Count 2 of the indictment charging the Accused under Article 138 paragraph 1 of the CCK.

In Count 2, as amended, the Accused was charged with Smuggling of Migrants under Article 138 paragraphs 1 of the Criminal Code of Kosovo.

Article 138 paragraph 1 of the CCK provides:

D. CONSIDERATIONS REGARDING THE EVIDENCE

I. Burden and standard of proof

Article 6 (2) of the European Convention on Human Rights (hereinafter the “ECHR”), the Constitution of Kosovo and Article 3 (1) of the CPC enshrine the presumption of innocence to which Accused are entitled. This presumption places on the Prosecution the burden of establishing the guilt of the Accused, a burden which remains on the Prosecution throughout the trial.

Article 370 (7) of the CPC stipulates that ‘the court shall state clearly and exhaustively which facts it considers proven or not proven, as well as grounds for this’. Accordingly, the Trial Panel must determine in respect of each of the counts charged against each of the Accused, whether it is satisfied on the basis of the whole of the evidence so that it is sure that every element of that crime has been established. Any doubt must be resolved in favour of the accused.

The Trial Panel pursuant to Article 7 (1), (2) of the CPC '... must truthfully and completely establish the facts which are important to rendering a lawful decision' and '... has a duty to examine carefully and with maximum professional devotion and to establish with equal attention the facts against the defendant as well as those in ... favour ...'.

E. PLEA AGREEMENT

On 30 October 2013 the parties filed in court a written plea agreement wherein it was agreed the Accused would enter a guilty plea under Count 2 to the offence of Smuggling of Migrants under Article 138 paragraph 1 of the CCK. Count 1 of the indictment was withdrawn.

The possibility of a Plea agreement was outlined to the Court on the morning of 28 October 2013 at the commencement of the main trial in Prizren Basic Court. In these circumstances the Indictment was not read to the Court by the prosecutor and the matter was adjourned for a period of two days to ensure that all parties had time to be fully apprised of their rights and obligations and in order that any conditions precedent to the agreement could be completed to the satisfaction of all parties.

The plea agreement was accordingly executed and the matter proceeded to disposal on 30 October 2013.

F. THE EVIDENCE

i. Searches and Evidence Seized

On 16 April 2012, the EULEX Pre-Trial Judge granted an Order for Arrest against A.B and a Search Order for his residence. On 17 April 2012, the Joint Investigation Team conducted so-called "Operation PINK", which resulted in the arrest of A.B. On the same day, a search was conducted by EULEX and Kosovo Police at the residence of A.B pursuant to the Order of the Pre-Trial Judge.⁵²

During the course of that search police seized 5 telephone handsets, 3 SIM cards and a computer.

a. Telephone Handsets

1. Samsung, without visible serial number
2. Nokia RM-240, model 6500, IMEI number: xxxxx
3. Samsung T-Mobile, IMEI number: xxxxx
4. Nokia X2-00, IMEI number: xxxxx
5. Nokia model 1208, IMEI number: xxxxx

b. SIM Cards

1. VALA, serial number: xxxxx
2. IPKO, serial number: xxxxx
3. IPKO, serial number: xxxxx

Those items were the subject of forensic analysis.⁵³

The Trial Panel finds that telephone numbers 0038xxxxx, 0038xxxxx, 0038xxxxx, 0038xxxxx and 0038xxxxx were in the possession of and used by the Accused at the material times.

ii. Interceptions and Metering⁵⁴

On 17 January 2012, the Joint Investigation Team received information from the Slovenian Police about a member of the criminal group identified in the course of their investigation. The suspect was named as Ag.M and information was provided on three IPKO telephone numbers purportedly being used by him: 00386 (0)49-xxxxx, 00386 (0)49-xxxxx and 00386 (0)49-xxxxx.

On 31 January 2012, the Pre-Trial Judge issued an Order for Interception of Telecommunications against the suspect then known as Ag.M.

On 15 March 2012, EULEX Police re-identified the suspect as A.B, following information received from the Croatian Police. This identification was supported by the telephone interceptions. New orders for interception were subsequently issued against the defendant under the name A.B.

Interceptions

The Prosecution relied upon summaries of the intercepted conversations, save where a verbatim part of the interception is transposed. The Trial Panel finds the summaries are accurate summaries of the intercepted conversations.

The Accused tells P they asked Ars for 500 Euros for 'expenses'. P is angry about the loss of money and says the Accused should have told him that he had already had other persons caught by the police on the route. The Accused insists "it was a big control, big checkpoint", not his fault. The Accused and P discuss taking Ars abroad. The Accused requests payment of 1000 Euros. The Accused subsequently says that Ars should pay 500 Euros when he arrives on the other side of the border. The UMP tells the Accused "you have no other obligation but just to take him into Croatian land".

Union from Z G, a suspected member of the organized criminal group in Croatia, between December 2010 and mid-2011.²¹⁹

Statements of the defendant

The defendant A.B was interviewed on four occasions by the Prosecutor and EULEX and Kosovo Police investigators. The defendant denied that he made or received any of the relevant telephone calls and SMS messages but rather claimed to have lost his phone during the relevant dates, only to find it later in his own house. The interception of his telecommunications and triangulation data therefrom, reveals that the communications sent and received were consistent with A.B's movements as revealed by photographic surveillance in public places.

Moreover, in view of the great extent of his communications with "N", O.K, L.K and other suspected members of the alleged organized criminal group, the Prosecutor considers the defendant's account that he does not know them or could not identify them further as incredible, and demonstrative of his lack of co-operation in the proceedings.

G. RESPONSIBILITY OF THE ACCUSED

The Accused was charged in two counts in the Indictment.

In Count 1 he was charged with Organised Crime under Article 274 paragraphs 1, 2 and 3 of the CCK.

²¹⁹See Kosovo Police 'Summary Report of Financial Investigation ('PINK')', dated 17.09.2012 (SPRK/in/OC/1078 of 26.09.2012), pp.1-86, A.B BINDER IX.

In Count 2 he was charged with Smuggling of Migrants under Article 138 paragraphs 1, 2, 3, 4, 5 and 6 of the CCK in co-perpetration pursuant to Article 23 of the CCK.

In the Plea Agreement dated 30 October 2013, signed by the parties, it was stated “the Prosecutor will no longer insist on Count 1 on the Indictment.” During the hearing on the Plea Agreement on 30 October 2013 the Prosecutor stated he withdrew Count 1. Count 2 was amended to charge the Accused under Article 138 paragraph 1 only.

The Court accepted the plea agreement and rejected Count 1.

The basis of the guilty plea under Count 2 was that the Accused had engaged in the smuggling of migrants, mostly of Turkish origin, from Kosovo to Croatia and Slovenia and onwards to their final destination in Italy and other EU countries, including Hungary, Austria, Germany, and other countries in Western Europe. Specifically:

That between 5 February 2012 and 25 February 2012, A.B smuggled a group of six Turkish migrants illegally from Croatia into Slovenia, with Italy as the intended destination. These migrants were identified as Z.G, born 30.10.1973, A.G, born 14.7.1997, M.G, 25.8.1994, B.G, born 2.10.2008, and G.K, born 1.6.1967.

The planning of the criminal offence began on 5 February 2012, when A.B entered into an agreement with N, a recruiter and main organizer on a transnational level, to regularly smuggle migrants through Montenegro and Croatia into Slovenia and Italy. After this agreement, A.B contacted other members of the criminal group from 6 to 19 February 2012 in order to get them prepared. These members included Z.G in Croatia, Sh.B in Italy, Av (last name unknown) in Kosovo, and an unidentified member of the group in Montenegro. Av would work with A.B in Kosovo to co-ordinate the drivers and Z.G would take care of transportation of the migrants in Croatia towards Slovenia, while Sh.B would oversee their onward crossing into Italy and transportation thereafter.

The planning of the operation was further concretized on 21 February 2012, when A.B entered into a direct agreement with L.K, a main organizer on a level above N in the same organized criminal group, to smuggle a group of six persons in the next days. These six migrants were Turkish citizens Z.G, A.G, M.G, B.G and G.K. L.K informed A.B that the migrants consisted of a family of five adults and one seven year old child. He agreed to the smuggling of these persons from Zagreb, Croatia to Italy. Other members of the wider transnational criminal group had already transported them from Turkey to Croatia, where A.B would take over. The migrants were each charged 1,400 euros for their transportation from Croatia through Slovenia to Italy alone.

While L.K was the direct and main contact point for A.B, the overall direction was given by her husband O.K, the leader of the criminal group. This is demonstrated by L asking for permission from O while talking on the phone with A.B about the forthcoming operation. A.B also received instructions directly from O.K regarding the smuggling of this specific group of migrants. In particular, O.K enquired about the drivers, the timing and modalities of the movement of the migrants and entry into the planned destination country, and where the migrants would be accommodated in Rijeka and money that would be taken from them in Croatia. C.K, the brother of O, was also involved in the smuggling arrangements from Turkey and communicated directly with A.B.

A.B's role was to communicate with the transporters from Croatia to Slovenia to Italy, the crucial stages of the migrants' journey given that these were the stages that the crime was concretised by the illegal crossing of borders into EU states. In doing so, A. B spoke with M.C. M.C organized the drivers directly, communicating back to A.B frequently to gain instructions and agree money arrangements. Moreover, A.B arranged for accommodation of the migrants in Opatija, Croatia, in “Hotel Opatija” run by G.N, another member of the group in Croatia who also works with M.C.

In addition, A.B was involved in the activities in Slovenia with his associate known as R.L who contributed to the commission of the offence as a driver for the group from Slovenia to Italy.

On the evening of 23 February 2012, the migrants departed from Zagreb, Croatia to Rijeka, Croatia in two groups. Some of the group went by taxi for 350 euros from Zagreb to Rijeka, while the remainder went by bus after A.B expressed his concern to L.K that they would be caught if they all travelled by taxi at night. In Rijeka they were met by the drivers organized by M.C, who took them to “Hotel Opatija” run by G.N. The migrants were made to pay 200 euros for staying one night. On 24 February 2012, A.B discussed the final arrangements with M.C for transportation of the migrants from Rijeka, Croatia to Slovenia and onwards to Italy. M.C and another associate travelled to Rijeka that evening in order to be ready to transport the migrants the next morning.

On 25 February 2012, at around 05:00hrs, M.C and another driver picked-up the migrants from Hotel Opatija. At this point, the migrants were made to hand over another 1,200 euros to the drivers (500 euro to one, 700 euro to the other). Three migrants travelled in each of the two vehicles towards the Croatian border with Slovenia. The border was in fact crossed at Starod, with the migrants entering into Slovenia illegally at some time before 11:00hrs.

Around 11:00hrs that day, the migrants were met by another driver in a Mercedes vehicle at Račice, Ilirska Bistrica region, Slovenia, who was secured by A.B to bring them to Italy. The prior plan had been to bring them to Udine, Italy, but on the day the driver took them towards Trieste, Italy.

The migrants Z.G, A.G, M.G, B.G and G.K, were all stopped at a police control point as they illegally crossed into Italy between 11:00 and 13:00hrs and were deported to Slovenia where they were arrested by the Slovenian Police in the Ilirska Bistrica region.

The ages and identities of the migrants' accord with the factual circumstances communicated in the intercepted calls of A.B, namely that the migrants were a family including a child. Notably, the youngest child of the group (B.G) was only 3 years of age at the time of the events, even younger than the 7-8 years old indicated. In addition, three other children were also smuggled since R.G was 13 years old, A.G 14 years old and M.G 17 years old at the time. Only two members of the group were adults (Z.G, 38, and G.K, 44).

Further, that between 26 February 2012 and 10 March 2012, A.B smuggled two migrants illegally from Croatia into Slovenia, with Italy as the intended destination. These migrants were identified as H.K, Turkish citizen, born 4.5.1984 (age 27 years), and G.K, Kosovo citizen, born 2.2.1991 (age 21).

The planning of the criminal offence began on 26 February 2012, when A.B agreed to smuggle G.K from Kosovo to Italy. Further, on 27 February 2012, A.B agreed with the K brothers to transport two Turkish migrants from Zagreb, Croatia to Italy. The migrants had already been transported from Turkey to Croatia by other members of the transnational organized criminal group. On 6 March 2012, O.K called A.B personally, at which point it was clarified that one Turkish migrant would be going. This migrant to be smuggled was H.K. Later that day, A.B agreed with L.K that H would be transported at the same time as the migrant from Kosovo.

A.B's main role was to communicate with the transporters from Croatia to Slovenia to Italy, the stages that the crime was again concretised by the illegal crossing of borders into EU states. In doing so, A.B discussed the activities in Croatia with M.C, who organized the drivers. A.B also tasked G.N, who provided accommodation at “Hotel Opatija” near Rijeka, Croatia. M and G also reported to Z.M, a manager for the criminal group in Croatia.

Furthermore, A.B worked with Sh.B, Kosovo citizen, T.H, Kosovo citizen and H.B, Serbian citizen living in Montenegro who served as the guides and transporters. These three members of the group directly accompanied the migrants along the journey. They also illegally entered Slovenia themselves.

The migrant departed from Rijeka, Croatia to Slovenia on 8 March 2012, crossing illegally into the region of Ilirska Bistrica, Slovenia by boat to the vicinity of Koper. They continued their journey towards Italy by night on 9 March 2012, in an effort to avoid the border police.

A.B directly communicated with the migrants along the way, telling them in precise detail where to cross between Slovenia and Italy. From these communications, the illicit nature of the entry is extremely clear. For example, he instructed the migrant not to jump over a fence but to walk around it across railway tracks, since there were guard dogs. He further directed the migrants to walk through pine trees towards Italy, indicating that they were entering Italy via an illegal crossing point through the forest.

The migrants H.K, and G.K, as well as the transporters Sh.B, H.B, T.H were all stopped at a police control point as they illegally crossed into Italy in the early hours of 10 March 2012. They were deported to Slovenia where they were arrested by the Slovenian Police in the Ilirska Bistrica region.

From intercepted communications in the aftermath of the arrests, the role of Sh.B, H.B, T.H as transporters for the criminal group was revealed. They were housed in a camp for illegal immigrants in Croatia together with the two migrants, since their entry was also unauthorized.

T.H and G.K were released and deported to Kosovo on 15 March 2012, while Sh.B was released and deported on 16 March 2012. Notably, the illegal nature of their activities in Croatia is demonstrated from A.B's suggestion to Sh.B to come up with an excuse for their presence in Croatia for the Kosovo Border Police upon arrival at Pristina airport which was not true.

Photographic surveillance of A.B by EULEX Police on 12 March 2012 further corroborates the evidence of his involvement in this smuggling operation, since he is photographed collecting T.H and G.K from Pristina airport.

Further, that between 24 February 2012 and 16 March 2012, A.B smuggled four migrants illegally from Kosovo through Montenegro and Croatia into Slovenia, with Italy as the intended destination. These migrants were identified as Ars.B, Kosovo citizen, born 25.5.1985 (age 26), M.H, Kosovo citizen, born 30.11.1980 (age 31), R.J, Kosovo citizen, born 15.5.1987 (age 24), and A.K, Kosovo citizen, born 1.11.1983 (age 28).

Planning of the smuggling operation began on 24 February 2012, when A.B received a call from "V", a member of his group in Kosovo, informing him that four migrants had been recruited (referred to as "four vehicles" in coded language) and they were ready to be transported from Kosovo abroad. Overall, A.B reported to O.K for the operation. The migrants were each charged 2,500 euros for their transportation from Kosovo through Montenegro, Croatia and Slovenia to Italy alone. They left this amount with I (last name unknown) in Kosovo, as security, until their transportation into Europe was completed.

A.B's main role was to communicate with the transporters from Croatia to Slovenia to Italy, the stages that the crime was again concretised by the illegal crossing of borders into EU states. In doing so, A.B discussed the activities in Croatia with M.C, who organized the drivers. A.B also tasked G.N, who provided accommodation at "Hotel Opatija" near Rijeka, Croatia. M and G also reported to Z.M, a manager for the criminal group in Croatia.

Furthermore, A.B worked with M.H, Kosovo citizen, I.H, Kosovo citizen, H.B, Serbian citizen living in Montenegro, and R.R, Serbian citizen. I.H, H.B, and R.R served as the guides and transporters from Kosovo onwards, while M.H took care of arrangements on the Italian side. I.H, H.B, and R.R directly accompanied the migrants along the journey. They also illegally entered Slovenia themselves.

In addition, A.B discussed the activities in Montenegro, a transit country, with his associate known as “Cu” who contributed to the commission of the offence as a driver for the group from Montenegro to Croatia and Slovenia.

The migrants departed Kosovo for Montenegro on or around 14 March 2012. The migrants and transporters stayed with “Cu” in Montenegro. A.B told “Cu” to ensure that the migrants each give the driver an additional 300 euros and 700 euros to another Montenegrin associate managing the transportation. In the event, the Montenegrin associate in fact took 1,000 euros from the migrants.

From Montenegro, on 15 March 2012, the migrants were driven by two Montenegrin members of the criminal group to Croatia where they were accommodated by G.N at “Hotel Opatija”, near Rijeka. At some point, they switched cars to evade the authorities. They were then taken by ship to Dubrovnik, Croatia. A.B kept in touch with “Cu” and the other Montenegrin members of the criminal group along the way, providing continuous directions on the route to take, money arrangements and accommodation. The boat arrived around 09:40hrs on 16 March 2012.

From there, the migrants were taken in the direction of a border crossing in Ilirska Bistrica region, Slovenia. A new driver from Slovenia was told by A.B to wait for the migrants the other side of the Croatia- Slovenian border. The migrants crossed the border on foot on the night of 16 March 2012 and early hours of 17 March 2012. A.B was aware of plans for them to go onwards to cross the border from Slovenia into Italy in the direction of Gorizia, in the Friuli Venezia Giulia region of northeast Italy.

However, the four migrants Ars.B, M.H, R.J, and A.K, as well as the transporters I.H, H.B, and R.R were all caught by the Slovenian police in Ilirska Bistrica and arrested.

Further, that between 17 March 2012 and 28 March 2012, A.B smuggled three migrants illegally from Kosovo through Montenegro and Croatia into Slovenia, with Italy as the intended destination. One of the migrants was identified as Bu (last name unknown), Kosovo citizen.

Planning for this smuggling operation began on 17 March 2012, when A.B arranged with a recruiter to send a new group abroad for 2,800 euros per migrant. The recruiter informed A.B that he had overcharged the migrants by 200 euros, but A.B told him he could keep it for himself.

A.B's main role was to communicate with the transporters from Kosovo to Montenegro, Montenegro to Croatia, Croatia into Slovenia and onwards from there into Italy. The crime was concretized by the illegal crossing of the Croatia – Slovenia border and entry into Slovenia and Italy without authorization.

In carrying out the smuggling of the migrants, A.B discussed the activities in Montenegro with an associate named and in Croatia with M.C, each of whom organized the drivers within their respective areas. A.B also tasked G.N and her sister, who provided accommodation at Hotel Opatija near Rijeka, Croatia. M, G and her sister also reported to Z.M, a manager for the criminal group in Croatia.

Furthermore, A.B worked with I.H, and Sh.B who served as the guides and transporters from Kosovo onwards.

On or around 04:00hrs on 22 March 2013, the three migrants departed from Kosovo to Montenegro. They arrived in Budva, Montenegro around 11:00hrs, where they were met by a member of the group in Montenegro at the bus station. They were accommodated for the night by another Montenegrin associate. The next day, they were driven to Dubrovnik, Croatia where they were met by another transporter. A.B told his associate known as “K.H” in Montenegro to ensure that each of the migrants gave the driver 300 euro at Budva and another 100 euro each when they arrived in Dubrovnik. The group crossed the Croatia – Slovenia border on or around 27 March. Thereafter, they were to travel onwards into Italy with another driver. However, the migrants were arrested by the Slovenian Police and deported to Kosovo.

Having regard to the evidence in this case upon which the prosecution relies the Trial Panel finds that the guilty plea is supported by the facts and material proofs. The Trial Panel accepted the guilty plea.

H. SENTENCING

In an early draft of the plea agreement it was proposed that the Accused plead guilty to Count 2 and that he be sentenced to a term of imprisonment of three years and a fine in the sum of 500 Euros. The fine would be converted to a further period of imprisonment if it remained unpaid.

Article 138 paragraph 1 of the ‘old’ CCK provided for a term of imprisonment of between 2 and 12 years. Article 170 of the ‘new’ CCRK provided for a term of imprisonment of between 2 and 10 years. However, under the ‘new’ CCRK it would be possible to fine the Accused. A fine following a conviction under Article 138 of the ‘old’ code was not envisaged in the law. In the circumstances, the Trial Panel found Article 138 of the ‘old’ code more favourable to the Accused, in circumstances where the possibility of the commutation of any fine into a period of imprisonment under Article 46, paragraph 3 of the CCRK allows for a theoretical maximum three (3) years of imprisonment in the event of the non-payment of any fine a Court might have chosen to impose.

In any event the proposed sentence of three years imprisonment was within the maximum sentences prescribed in both codes.

Under the terms of the plea agreement the Accused agreed to provide a statement to the Prosecutor or Police, regarding the activities of the person known as “N”, who is known to the Defendant. This interview will take place as soon as possible. This information will include N’s full name and an account of his involvement in the smuggling of migrants. Further, in the event of “N” being indicted in Kosovo, the Defendant will give evidence against him for the prosecution at the main trial.

Prior to the Court having received the signed written plea agreement the Accused had complied with the first part of his obligation under the said plea agreement.

The Accused was convicted of a serious criminal offence.

The Accused is 36 years of age and married with a two year old child. He described his income as “average”.

The Trial Panel considered the sentence of three years imprisonment was reasonable and proportionate.

The Court finds that the provisions of Article 233 of the Criminal Procedure Code have been complied with and that the plea agreement was entered into voluntarily by the accused and that he understood its import and implications regarding his future conduct at the time that it was signed by him. The Court notes that copies of the plea agreement have been retained by the parties and a copy has been retained on the court’s file.

For the reasons stated herein we render this Judgment.
