

THE PHRASE "CHARGES OF ANY KIND" IN ARTICLE I:1
IN RELATION TO CONSULAR TAXES

Ruling by the Chairman on 24 August 1948

II/12

In response to a request for an interpretation of the phrase "charges of any kind" in paragraph 1 of Article I with respect to consular taxes, the Chairman ruled that such taxes would be covered by the phrase "charges of any kind".