Having considered the respondent Party's request for a review of the decision of the Second Panel of the Chamber on the admissibility and merits of the aforementioned case;

Having considered the First Panel's recommendation;

Adopts the following decision pursuant to Article X(2) of the Human Rights Agreement ("the Agreement") set out in Annex 6 to the General Framework Agreement for Peace in Bosnia and Herzegovina as well as Rules 63-66 of the Chamber's Rules of Procedure:

I. FACTS AND COMPLAINTS

1. The Chamber refers to the decision of the Second Panel, which is appended to the present decision (Annex 1).

II. SUMMARY OF THE PROCEEDINGS BEFORE THE CHAMBER

2. On 11 January 2001, the Second Panel's decision on admissibility and merits was delivered in pursuance of Rule 60. On 15 February 2001, the respondent Party, the Republika Srpska, submitted a request for review of the decision.

3. In accordance with Rule 64 (1), the request was considered by the First Panel.

III. THE REQUEST FOR REVIEW

4. The Chamber refers to the request for review, which is appended to the present decision (Annex 2).

IV. OPINION OF THE FIRST PANEL

5. The First Panel notes that the respondent Party submitted its request for review 37 days after the public delivering of the decision on admissibility and merits. Under the terms of Rule 63 (2), according to the English text, a request for review of a decision delivered at a public hearing in accordance with Rule 60 (2) must be lodged within one month from the date of such delivery. Under the terms of Rule 63 (2) as it reads in the Bosnian, Croatian and Serbian languages, such a request for review must be lodged within one month from the date on which the decision is delivered by the Registrar to the parties concerned. However, the word "delivered" (dostaviti) is used in Rule 60 (4) as well, where in the English version the word "transmitted" is used. Thus Rule 63 (2) may be read in the national language versions to refer to Rule 60 (4) as well, with the consequence that the delivery takes place when the decision is transmitted. The First Panel is of the opinion that the various language versions of the Chamber's Rules are all equally authoritative and that, in the present case, it is proper that the discrepancy noted should not be detrimental to the position of a party seeking review. Consequently, the First Panel recommends that the request for review of the respondent Party also be deemed to have been lodged within the time-limit prescribed by Rule 63 (2).

6. The respondent Party submits that the Chamber went beyond the claims set out in the application. It states that the application was submitted on behalf of Mr. Palić and that the Chamber drew the incorrect conclusion, when it found that the application has been submitted by Mrs. Palić in her own right as well as on behalf of her husband Mr. Palić. The First Panel notes, firstly, that Ms. Palić refers in her application and the subsequent proceedings to Mr. Palić's family's right to know about his fate and the effects of his disappearance on the family and, secondly, that the respondent Party did not at any time raise an objection on this point before the Second Panel. Moreover, already the Second Panel's decision on admissibility of 6 July 2000 named the applicants as "Avdo and Esma Palić" and nothing suggests that Ms. Palić did not wish to apply in her own name as well as in that of her husband. In any event, the Chamber's jurisdiction extends not only to alleged violations of human rights but also to apparent violations (Article VIII paragraph 1 of the Agreement).

7. The respondent Party also submits that the application ought to have been declared inadmissible on the ground of non-compliance with the six-months-Rule. The First Panel notes that the Second Panel did not specifically address this objection. The First Panel considers that since the Second Panel has found on the facts that the application complains of a continuing situation, an objection of this nature should in any case be rejected (see case no. CH/96/1, Matanović, decision on admissibility of 13 September 1996, Decisions on Admissibility and Merits March 1996 – December 1997). The First Panel refers to the findings of the Second Panel in dealing with its competence ratione temporis.

8. The First Panel is of the opinion, that the other arguments upon which the respondent Party's request for review is based were in essence already examined by the Second Panel which considered the admissibility and merits of the case and that they were rejected on adequate grounds. The First Panel therefore does not consider that "the whole circumstances justify reviewing the decision" as required by Rule 64 (2)(b). In addition, the case does not raise "a serious question affecting the interpretation or application of the Agreement or a serious issue of general importance" as required by Rule 64 (2)(a).

9. The First Panel further notes that the respondent Party disagrees with the award of monetary relief made in favour of the applicant. However, that involves neither a serious issue affecting the interpretation of the Agreement nor an issue of general importance. Moreover, it cannot be said that the whole circumstances justify reviewing the original decision on this point either.

10. In conclusion, the First Panel, by 6 votes to 1 recommends that the Plenary Chamber not accept the request.

V. OPINION OF THE PLENARY CHAMBER

11. The Plenary Chamber agrees with the First Panel that, for the reasons stated, the request for review does not meet the two conditions required for the Chamber to accept such a request pursuant to Rule 64(2).

VI. CONCLUSION

12. For these reasons, the Chamber, unanimously,

DECIDES NOT TO REFUSE THE RESPONDENT PARTY'S REQUEST FOR REVIEW AS OUT OF TIME, AND REJECTS THE REQUEST FOR REVIEW.
