Mr. Jakob MÖLLER
Mr. Mehmed DEKOVIĆ

Having considered the aforementioned application introduced pursuant to Article VIII(1) of the Human Rights Agreement ("the Agreement") set out in Annex 6 to the General Framework Agreement for Peace in Bosnia and Herzegovina;

Adopts the following decision pursuant to Article VIII(3)(c) of the Agreement and Rules 49(2) and 52 of the Chamber's Rules of Procedure:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. The case concerns the applicant's attempts to regain possession of her pre-war apartment located at Krupska Street 12 in Bihać, the Federation of Bosnia and Herzegovina.
2. On 12 July 1999 the Service for Reconstruction and Housing-Utility Affairs, Municipality Bihać, issued a procedural decision recognising the applicant as the occupancy right holder of the apartment in question, and terminating the right of temporary occupant to use it.
3. On 25 January 2002 the Service for Reconstruction and Housing-Utility Affairs, Municipality Bihać, issued a conclusion on enforcement of a decision of the Commission for Real Property Claims of Displaced Persons and Refugees ("CRPC") regarding repossession of the applicant's pre-war apartment.
4. On 3 October 2002, the applicant entered into possession of her pre-war apartment.

II. PROCEEDINGS BEFORE THE CHAMBER

5. The application was introduced on 23 July 2002 and registered on the same day.
6. On 16 October 2002, the applicant provided information to the Chamber that she had regained possession of her apartment on 3 October 2002. She noted that while she withdraws her complaints in this respect, she would like to maintain her claim for compensation.

III. OPINION OF THE CHAMBER

7. In accordance with Article VIII(3) of the Agreement, "the Chamber may decide at any point in its proceedings to suspend consideration of, reject or strike out, an application on the ground that ... (c) for any other reason established by the Chamber, it is no longer justified to continue the examination of the application; provided that such a result is consistent with the objective of respect for human rights."
8. The Chamber notes that the applicant lodged her application with a view to regaining possession of her apartment, and while the case was still pending before the Chamber, she regained such possession. The Chamber further notes that although the applicant has been reinstated, she understandably asks the Chamber to find a violation of her rights protected by the Agreement due to the time that elapsed between her request for reinstatement into possession of her pre-war apartment and the actual repossession. She also asks the Chamber to order the respondent Party to pay compensation to her in recognition of the damage, both pecuniary and non-pecuniary, suffered by her during the course of that time.
9. The Chamber recalls that under Article VIII(2)(e) of the Agreement, "the Chamber shall endeavour to give particular priority to allegations of especially severe or systematic violations and those founded on alleged discrimination on prohibited grounds". As the Chamber has explained in the case of Vujičić v. the Federation of Bosnia and Herzegovina (case no. CH/99/2198, decision to strike out of 10 October 2002, Decisions July—December 2002), there are presently thousands of undecided applications pending before the Chamber, and this number is growing month by month. Moreover, significant progress in the return and property law implementation process in Bosnia and Herzegovina has occurred (id. at paragraphs 15-16).

10. Taking into account that the applicant has been reinstated into possession of her apartment, the Chamber considers that the ongoing alleged human rights violation has been brought to an end and the main issue of the application has been resolved. The Chamber recognises that valid reasons may underlie the applicant's request to nonetheless maintain her claim for compensation. However, in the light of the considerations discussed above, the Chamber finds that "it is no longer justified to continue the examination of the application" within the meaning of Article VIII(3)(c) of the Agreement. The Chamber moreover finds that this result is "consistent with the objective of respect for human rights", as this "objective" must be understood to embrace not only the individual applicant's human rights, but also the Chamber's more general mandate to assist the Parties in securing to all persons within their jurisdiction the highest level of internationally recognised human rights (Articles I and II of the Agreement).

11. The Chamber, therefore, decides to strike out the application, pursuant to Article VIII(3)(c) of the Agreement.

IV. CONCLUSION

12. For these reasons, the Chamber, unanimously

STRIKES OUT THE APPLICATION.
