I. INTRODUCTION

1. The cases concern the applicants' attempts to regain possession of their pre-war apartments. All the applicants are represented by Ms. Senija Poropat, a lawyer practising in Sarajevo.

She withdrew her claim to regain possession of the apartment before the Chamber. However, she explicitly stated that the applicant would like to maintain her request for compensation for pecuniary and non-pecuniary damages and for costs and expenses that she had incurred in the proceedings.

However, she explicitly stated that the applicant would like to maintain his request for compensation for pecuniary and non-pecuniary damages and for costs and expenses that he had incurred in the proceedings.

III. OPINION OF THE CHAMBER

24. In accordance with Article VIII(3) of the Agreement, "the Chamber may decide at any point in its proceedings to suspend consideration of, reject or strike out, an application on the ground that ... (c) for any other reason established by the Chamber, it is no longer justified to continue the examination of the application; provided that such a result is consistent with the objective of respect for human rights."

25. The Chamber notes that the applicants lodged their applications with a view to regaining possession of their apartments, and while the cases were still pending before the Chamber, they regained such possession. The Chamber further notes that although the applicants have been reinstated, they understandably ask the Chamber to find a violation of their rights protected by the Agreement due to the time that elapsed between their request for reinstatement into possession of their pre-war apartments and the actual repossession. They also ask the Chamber to order the respondent Party to pay compensation to them in recognition of the damage, both pecuniary and non-pecuniary as well as for cost and expenses, suffered by them during the course of that time.

26. The Chamber recalls that under Article VIII(2)(e) of the Agreement, "the Chamber shall endeavour to give particular priority to allegations of especially severe or systematic violations and those founded on alleged discrimination on prohibited grounds". As the Chamber has explained in the case of Vujičić v. the Federation of Bosnia and Herzegovina (case no. CH/99/2198, decision to strike out of 10 October 2002, Decisions July—December 2002), there are presently thousands of undecided applications pending before the Chamber, and this number is growing month by month.

Moreover, significant progress in the return and property law implementation process in Bosnia and Herzegovina has occurred (id. at paragraphs 15-16).

27. Taking into account that the applicants have been reinstated into possession of their apartments, the Chamber considers that the ongoing alleged human rights violations have been brought to an end and the main issue of the applications has been resolved. The Chamber recognizes that valid reasons may underlie the applicants' requests to nonetheless maintain their claims for compensation. However, in the light of the considerations discussed above, the Chamber finds that "it is no longer justified to continue the examination of the applications" within the meaning of Article VIII(3)(c) of the Agreement. The Chamber moreover finds that this result is "consistent with the objective of respect for human rights", as this "objective" must be understood to embrace not only the individual applicant's human rights, but also the Chamber's more general mandate to assist the Parties in securing to all persons within their jurisdiction the highest level of internationally recognized human rights (Articles I and II of the Agreement).

28. The Chamber, therefore, decides to strike out the applications, pursuant to Article VIII(3)(c) of the Agreement.

IV. CONCLUSION

29. For these reasons, the Chamber, unanimously,

STRIKES OUT THE APPLICATION.
