I. INTRODUCTION

1. In the following cases the applicants sought repossession of their pre-war property, and they informed the Chamber that they had been reinstated into possession of their property.

(b) the matter has been resolved; ... provided that such a result is consistent with the objective of respect for human rights."

13. The Chamber notes that the applicants lodged their applications with a view to regaining possession of their pre-war property, and while their cases were still pending before the Chamber, they regained such possession. Therefore, the Chamber finds that the matter raised in the applications has been resolved. Furthermore, the Chamber finds no special circumstances regarding respect for human rights which require the examination of the applications to be continued. The Chamber therefore decides to strike out the applications, pursuant to Article VIII(3)(b) of the Agreement.
