[1] Case 1806. March 12, 1974, denouncing the arbitrary arrest of a Bolivian student in Cochabamba and the illegal search and seizure of his personal effects and documents. Subsequently, this student has allegedly been transferred to a prison in La Paz.

[2] In a note dated April 8, 1974, the Commission requested the Government of Bolivia to provide the pertinent information, in accordance with Articles 42 and 44 of the Rules of Procedure.

[3] In October 1974, the Commission, during its thirty-fourth session, noted that the Government of Bolivia had not replied to the above-mentioned request for information and decided to repeat it, by cable, on October 24, 1974, and informed the complainant of this decision.

[4] Notwithstanding the seriousness of the facts reported, the Government of Bolivia did not reply to the urgent request for information from the Commission until November 11, 1974 (Letter No. DGAJ-245/148), in which it only stated that "a report had been requested from the Ministry of the Interiors with a view to clarifying the denunciation made to the offices under your authority".
