[1] 1889 of November 7, 1974 denounces the arrest of former Chilean Deputy, Mrs. Laura Allende, in Santiago, on November 2 of that year.

[2] In a cable dated November 13, 1974, the Commission asked the Government of Chile to provide the appropriate information.

[3] In a communication of that same date, the Secretariat informed the claimant of the measure taken in connection with the denunciation.

[4] Through a note of November 20, 1974 (S/N), the Government of Chile replied to this request for information made by the Commission. The pertinent parts of that reply appear below :

"In connection with your recent letter, I am in a position to report that Mrs. Laura Allende is in good health and her life is in no danger.

"Mrs. Allende was arrested on November 2 for having been involved in the clandestine activities of terrorist groups under the MIR.

[5] In a communication dated November 27, 1974, the Secretariat transmitted the pertinent parts of the reply received from the Chilean Government to the claimant.

[6] The Commission examined case 1889 during the course of its thirty-fifth session (May 1975), together with the information provided by the Government of Chile. It decided to file the claim.

[7] The Government of Chile and the claimant were informed of this decision through communications dated August 6 and August 19, 1975, respectively.
