16. On March 3, 1999, the Commission requested precautionary measures on behalf of Patricia Ballesterio Vidal, Lee Pope and Arnold Fuentes, of Spanish, United States and French nationality respectively, who, according to the information received, had been ordered expelled for having participated in and expressed their support and solidarity for a demonstration organized by the Pehuenches indigenous population on February 18, 1999 in the Alto Bio-Bio. In reply, the Chilean State informed the Commission that the order for the expulsion of the aforementioned persons had been rescinded.
