42. On March 4, 1999, the Commission granted precautionary measures on behalf of Angel Aguirre Rodríguez, a prisoner who, according to the information before the Commission, had been brutally beaten in the Nuevo León Social Rehabilitation Center (CERESO de Apodaca), together with other prisoners who had been meeting with representatives of Citizens in Support of Human Rights, A. C. (CADHAC), who were allegedly harassed. The State responded to the Commission's request on March 19, 1999, with information on the measures it had adopted, which consisted of the intervention of the State Human Rights Commission of Nuevo León and of the Government Secretariat of that state. The parties continued the interchange of information and observations in relation to these measures and the situation of the prisoners until October 4, 1999, when the six month period for which the measures had been granted expired.
