37. On July 27, 1999, the Commission granted precautionary measures in favor of Mrs. Dora Emperatriz Oliva Guifarro, a member of the Committee of Relatives of the Detained-Disappeared in Honduras (COFADEH), who, according to the information received, was abducted on July 5, 1999, for a period of two hours, by two individuals allegedly linked to active paramilitary groups. The same measures were requested on behalf of her sister, Mrs. Bertha Oliva de Nativí, General Coordinator of the aforementioned Committee and Vice Chair of the Commission for the Defense of Human Rights in Central America, the members of her family and the members of COFADEH. The Commission requested that the State of Honduras adopt the measures necessary to safeguard the lives and personal integrity of those named. Pursuant to the response of the State, the parties continued presenting information and observations in relation to these measures.
