24. On December 6, 1999, the Commission again communicated with the State in connection with this matter to request the amplification of the precautionary measures mentioned above to include Messrs. Libardo Campo Traslaviña, Gilberto Guerra Hernández, Andrés Gil, Francisco José Campo, Ramón Rangel, José Cediel Mondragón Sánchez, Isidro Alarcón Bohorquez and Tito Muñoz, who, like Mr. Edgar Quiroga, had served as spokespersons for the peasant migration and whose personal security was also in danger. During the period covered by this report, the parties continued presenting information and observations in relation to these measures.
