51. On March 10, 2000, the Commission granted precautionary measures and addressed the State of Peru to request that it adopt effective measures to protect the freedom of expression and the press of Mr. Genaro Delgado Parker. These measures are being processed in the context of case 12.262. According to the information received, the authorities had stripped Mr. Delgado Parker of control of the television chain "Global Network," and confiscated the broadcasting equipment of his radio station "Radio 1160."
