43. On March 17, 2000, the Commission granted precautionary measures and requested that the Peruvian State adopt effective measures to guarantee the physical integrity and life of Mrs. Erika Milagros Martínez Liñan and Mr. Carlos Armando Rodríguez Iglesias, as well as their family members, including protective measures that would not interfere with their freedom of movement and expression. The IACHR also asked Peru to launch an investigation into threats that those individuals had received. These precautionary measures are based on a request presented to the IACHR indicating that Mr. Rodríguez and Mrs. Martínez had received threats after publicly announcing that they helped falsify electoral ballots in the May 2000 elections. The State replied on April 20, 2000 and reported that the National Police of Peru had offered personal guarantees to the aforementioned persons.
