13. On April 27, 2000, the Commission requested that precautionary measures be adopted on behalf of the São Paulo state police auditor, Benedito Mariano, and his family members. The Archbishop Emeritus of São Paulo requested those measures in response to threats Mr. Mariano received, presumably because of his activities monitoring police conduct. The State replied to the Commission's request and reported that the precautionary measures had been granted. They expired on October 27, 2000.
