44. On May 26, 2000, the Commission granted precautionary measures on behalf of Mr. Fabián Salazar Olivares, which were transmitted in the context of case 12.286. According to the information received, National Intelligence Service (SIN) agents entered the office of the newspaper where Mr. Salazar works and tortured him in order to remove videos from him. Mr. Salazar was hospitalized for cuts on his left arm. The Commission requested that the Peruvian State take steps to protect Mr. Salazar's life, physical integrity, and freedom. On July 14, 2000, the State indicated that it could not comply with the precautionary measures because Mr. Salazar had left the country on May 31, 2000.
