13. On January 30, 2001, the Commission granted precautionary measures and requested that the Colombian State take steps to protect the life and person of Gloria Gaitán Jaramillo. The information available indicates that Ms. Gaitán Jaramillo has suffered harassment and persecution, at both her home and her place of work, as a result of her efforts in pursuing an investigation into the slaying of her father, Jorge Eliécer Gaitán, through what is known as the “National and International Truth Tribunal Campaign.” After the State replied, the parties have continued to submit information and comments in connection with these precautionary measures.
