28. On April 19, 2002 the Commission granted precautionary measures on behalf of Luz Perly Córdoba Mosquera, Santos Mendoza, Rodrigo Alberto Pacheco, Hugo Alberto Peña, Luis Alfonso Gutiérrez B., Pedro Luis Sosa, Apolinar Herrera, Antonio Yotagri, María Teresa Rincón, and Hermes Villada, members of the Asociación Campesina de Arauca (ACA). The petitioners alleged that after ACA members took part in a campesino demonstration, Mrs. Luz Perly Córdoba was harassed and Henry Neira, director of the ACA Municipal Committee in Saravena, was killed. On March 13, 2002 Hugo Alberto Peña Camargo, ACA's acting-president was detained by members of the Batallion Héroes de Saraguro battalion, intended to intimidate him. The State reported that the prosecution office assigned to work with the Criminal Law Judges of the Special Circuit in Arauca had delegated in the DAS the criminal investigation into the alleged threats against ACA members. After precautionary measures were adopted, the petitioners informed the IACHR that the harassment and threats against the beneficiaries had not stopped.
