70. On October 10, 2002, the Commission granted precautionary measures on behalf of Jesús Ángel Gutiérrez Olvera, Leonor Guadalupe Olvera López, Sandra Gutiérrez Olvera, and Ernesto García Garrido. The petitioners alleged that after they denounced agents of the attorney general's office for their alleged responsibility for the March 14, 2002 disappearance of her son, Jesús Ángel Gutiérrez Olvera, Mrs. Olvera has been under surveillance and was the victim of acts of intimidation. They indicate that the attorneys pursuing the investigation have been threatened and that those threats were reported to the pertinent bodies, which led the Human Rights Commission of the Federal District to involve the judicial police in protecting the beneficiaries. The State and the petitioners presented information and observations to the IACHR on the implementation of these precautionary measures.
