100. On October 18, 2002, the IACHR granted precautionary measures on behalf of Luis Enrique Uzcátegui Jiménez, brother of Néstor José Uzcátegui Jiménez, who was killed on January 1, 2001 allegedly by state of Falcón police officers. According to the request presented to the IACHR, Mr. Uzcátegui had received death threats for having organized a committee of family members of victims of alleged executions by members of the police. In light of new events that aggravated the beneficiary's security situation and of the fact that the State did not take the necessary measures to comply with the precautionary measures, on November 25, 2002 the IACHR asked the Inter-American Court of Human Rights to order the adoption of provisional measures. The Court granted that request on November 27, 2002.
