15. On March 7, 2003, the Commission granted precautionary measures to Mr. Over Dorado Cardona, a member of the board of directors of the Comité Permanente por la Defensa de los Derechos Humanos “Héctor Abad Gómez.” The information available indicates that on February 28, 2003, Mr. Dorado Cardona received a written threat from the Autodefensas Unidas de Colombia (AUC), which stated “your defense of the teachers and in defense of what are said to be human rights is totally biased and against the government.... you are getting involved where you’re not being called, you are a defender of the guerrillas... our studies lead us to declare you a military target.” In view of the situation of risk to the beneficiary, the IACHR called on the Colombian State to adopt measures to protect the life and physical integrity of Over Dorado Cardona, and to report on the actions taken to investigate the facts and to put an end to the threats. The Commission has continued receiving information on the situation of the person protected.
