25. On September 9, 2003, the Commission granted precautionary measures on behalf of trade union leader David Flórez González, president of the Central Unitaria de Trabajadores in the department of Santander. The information available indicates that in the context of violence against trade unionists in Colombia, information was received regarding death threats made to Mr. Flórez. In view of the situation, the IACHR asked the Colombian State to take the measures needed to protect his life and physical integrity, and to report on the actions taken to investigate the facts and put an end to the threats. The Commission has continued receiving information on his situation.
