26. On February 27, 2004, the IACHR granted precautionary measures in favor of Mr. Leonidas Iza, President of the Confederation of Indigenous Nations of Ecuador (Confederación de las Nacionalidades Indígenas del Ecuador—CONAIE) and his family. Available information indicates that on February 1, 2004, Mr. Iza and members of his family were victims of an armed assault at CONAIE headquarters, as a result of which they were severely injured. In view of the risk for the beneficiaries, the Commission requested the Ecuadorian State to adopt measures to protect the life and physical integrity of Mr. Leonidas Iza and his family. The Commission continues to monitor the situation of protected persons.
