24. On October 22, 2004, the IACHR adopted precautionary measures in favor of Mery Naranjo Jiménez and her family and Socorro Mosquera Londoño, members of the Community Action Board (Junta de Acción Comunal) of the Independencias III district of Commune 13 of the city of Medellín. Available information indicates that on October 7, 2004, Ms. Mery Naranjo witnessed the murder of Ana Teresa Yarce, prosecutor of the same Community Action Board to which she belongs, after which she had to leave her home for security reasons. A few days later, unknown persons approached her daughter to intimidate her. In view of the situation of the beneficiaries and the context of violence and intimidation against the social leaders of Commune 13 of Medellín by paramilitary groups, the Commission requested the Colombian Government to adopt the measures necessary to guarantee the lives and physical integrity of Mery Naranjo Jiménez, Alba Mery Naranjo, Sandra Janneth Naranjo, Alejandro Naranjo, Juan David Naranjo, and Socorro Mosquera Londoño and to report on the actions adopted to clarify and put an end to the threats justifying the adoption of the precautionary measures. The Commission continues to monitor the situation of the protected persons.
