24. On November 22, 2006, the IACHR granted precautionary measures in favor of Jorge Luís García Pérez-Antúnez, who is currently detained by the State of Cuba. The information available states that Mr. García Pérez-Antúnez has been warned by the authorities that he will not leave alive the prison where he is currently serving a 17 year sentence. Mr. García Pérez-Antúnez is close to completing his sentence and being set free. In view of this, the Commission has requested that the Government of Cuba adopt the measures necessary to protect the life and physical integrity of the beneficiary and report on the action taken to investigate judicially the events that gave rise to the precautionary measures.
