29. On June 13, 2008, the IACHR granted the request seeking precautionary measures for Marisela Ortiz Rivera, María Luisa García Andrade, Karla Michell and David Peña, members of the organization called “Nuestras Hijas de Regreso a Casa” [Our Daughters Home Again], for Luz Estela Castro Rodríguez, Alma Gómez Caballero, Rossina Urgana Barri, Gabino Gómez Escárcega, Adriana Carmona López, Minerva Maesse, Monserrat González, Irma Villanueva, Flor Gómez, Alberto Rodríguez, Beatriz Gómez, Consuelo Ramos, Ema Martínez, Flor Gómez, Imelda Ruiz, Inti Gómez, Ivonne Gómez, José A. Hernández, Karim Rivera, Laura Aragón, Leonilla Gómez, Luz María Reyes, María de la Luz Nájera, Manuel E. Gómez, María Elena Estevané, Pablo E. Gómez, Rosa Ema Carmona, Norma Ledezma, Silvia Madrigal, Verónica Nava, Yolanda Gómez and Zoila Espino, all members of the “Centro de Derechos Humanos de la Mujer” [Women’s Human Rights Center] and for their immediate families. On June 9, 2008, the Commission received a communication from the Permanent Mission of Mexico to the OAS in which the Mexican State reports that a number of human rights organizations are concerned over threats made against those on whose behalf they work and asks the Commission to consider implementation of precautionary measures. In response, the Commission granted precautionary measures with a view to guaranteeing the lives and physical integrity of the beneficiaries and asked the State to report the measures taken to shed light on the facts. The Commission continues to monitor the situation.
