25. On November 13, 2009, the IACHR requested the adoption of precautionary measures for Macdiel Bachiller Pedroza, in Cuba. The request for precautionary measures alleges that Macdiel Bachiller Pedroza had been deprived of liberty on four occasions, on the grounds that he was a "danger to society," in retaliation for the activities of his father, the union leader Aurelio Bachiller. It was also alleged that as a result of the State's actions, the rights and remedies to which the beneficiary would have access under domestic and international law would not be subject to effective legal protection. Consequently, the IACHR requested that the government of Cuba provide information about the beneficiary's legal situation and detention status.
