

VERACRUZ TELEPHONE CONSTRUCTION SYNDICATE (GREAT BRITAIN) v. UNITED MEXICAN STATES

(Decision No. 120, January 22, 1932. Pages 354-355. See also decision No. 8.)

1. The Mexican Agent has placed at the disposal of the Commission the original record of the proceedings instituted by the claimant Company against the Government of Veracruz, which record the Chairman of the Commission had requested the Agents to file.

The Mexican Agent, wishing to comment upon this evidence, has requested to reopen the case.

2. The Commission rule that the case is reopened in order that the Agents may present oral arguments which must be strictly confined to the new evidence submitted to the Commission.
