1. On 25 January 2008, the Registrar filed a confidential ex parte "Victims and Witnesses Unit report on the status of referrals" available to the Office of the Prosecutor ("prosecution") only.¹ The report informed the Trial Chamber that, inter alia, decisions on the applications for participation of a number of witnesses in the protection program, and implementation, if any, of protective measures, would be delayed beyond 31 January 2008.² The prosecution responded to the Victims and Witnesses Unit's report on 29 January 2008.³
2. In addition, the Chamber is seized of applications filed by the prosecution for the non-disclosure of information and the redaction of material to be disclosed to the defence which are still pending.⁴
3. In its Decision on disclosure and date of trial issued on 9 November 2007, the Chamber ordered the prosecution to serve the entirety of its evidence by 16.00 on 14 December 2007.⁵ The Chamber also ruled that the defence and the victims' representatives would be given 12 weeks to prepare for trial, and set the trial date for 31 March 2008.⁶ Following the filing by the prosecution of a number of applications for the non-disclosure of information, the disclosure of evidence in summary form, for redactions, and for the lifting of redactions,⁷ the Chamber convened hearings to deal with the issues raised and specific requests,⁸ and issued oral and written decisions.⁹ In an oral decision delivered on 13 December 2007, the Trial Chamber ruled that the prosecution could withhold certain items of evidence concerning witnesses who had been referred to the Victims and Witnesses Unit until 31 January 2008. It was expected that any security measure or other protective measure would be implemented by that stage.¹⁰ Additionally, by an oral decision on 18 January 2008, the prosecution was, inter alia, ordered to file additional material to assist the Chamber in its consideration of the issues raised.¹¹

4. The issues raised in the documents referred to above relate to, and impact on, the 31 January 2008 deadline for final disclosure to the defence. Until these issues are resolved, the 31 January deadline is suspended. As some of the
