Official Court Translation

- 1. By order issued on 6 November 2008,¹ Trial Chamber II of the International Criminal Court ("the Chamber" and "the Court", respectively) convened a status conference pursuant to rule 132 of the Rules of Procedure and Evidence ("the Rules").
- 2. In that same order, the Chamber deemed that it was appropriate to obtain information from the participants in the proceedings as well as from the Registry that may assist the Chamber in conducting this first status conference effectively.
- 3. Pursuant to article 64(2) and 64(3)(a) of the Rome Statute ("the Statute") and regulation 28(2) of the Regulations of the Court, the Chamber hereby addresses a list of questions to the participants and the Registry accordingly.
- 4. The Chamber requests the participants and the Registry to initially submit to the Chamber a document in writing concisely setting out their answers to the questions asked ("the Written Response"), upon which they shall expatiate orally at the status conference convened for this purpose.
- 5. The Chamber further invites the participants and the Registry to add a second part to their Written Response setting out the issues and observations which they would deem relevant and on which they would like the Chamber to rule. However, the Chamber recalls that a number of issues relating to the conduct of proceedings before the Court have already been settled, notably by the Appeals Chamber, Trial Chamber I and Pre-Trial Chamber I in the present case and in the case of The Prosecutor v. Thomas Lubanga Dyilo.

- 6. This includes issues pertaining to release or continued detention,² the use of article 54(3)(e) of the Statute,³ ex parte proceedings,⁴ redactions⁵ and victim participation.⁶
- 7. Further to its obligation under article 64(2) of the Statute to ensure that proceedings are conducted expeditiously, the Chamber takes note of legal principles and rules so established and does not, in principle, intend to revisit them.
- 8. Furthermore, the Chamber informs the accused that, pursuant to article 64(8)(a) of the Statute read together with article 67(1)(a) of the Statute, the charges previously confirmed by Pre-Trial Chamber I shall be read to them at the first status conference and that they shall have the opportunity to make an admission of guilt in accordance with article 65 of the Statute or to plead not guilty. The Chamber would like to point out that it will read the charges again and will afford the accused a further opportunity to make an admission of guilt or to plead not guilty at the commencement of the hearings on the merits.

9. The Chamber addresses the following questions to the Prosecutor:

- 1) Has the Office of the Prosecutor completed its investigation in the present case? If not, at what date does it intend to end the investigation?⁷
- 2) If the investigation is still ongoing, would its continuance entail the presentation of new pieces of evidence? If so, how many, what type (incriminating and/or exonerating) and in what form? To which charges and which modes of responsibility are they specifically directed?
- 3) How many incriminating pieces of evidence must still be disclosed to the Defence for the purpose of the trial? What type of items are they (statements, reports, photographs, videos, etc.)? To which charges and which modes of responsibility are they specifically directed? On what date will they be disclosed? Is a translation available in the Court's other working language?
- 4) How many exonerating pieces of evidence covered by article 67(2) of the Statute or rule 77 of the Rules must still be disclosed to the Defence? On what date will they be disclosed?
- 5) Has the Prosecutor specified to the Defence to which charge and/or to which mode of responsibility the exonerating pieces of evidence covered by article 67(2) of the Statute or rule 77 of the Rules and disclosed following the Decision on the confirmation of charges were directed?⁸ If so, how?

- 6) Can the Prosecutor transmit to the Chamber an exhaustive list of the exonerating pieces of evidence covered by article 67(2) of the Statute or rule 77 of the Rules which it has already disclosed to the Defence after redacting them proprio motu? To which charges and to which modes of responsibility are they specifically directed? In which language were these documents disclosed to the Defence? Is a translation available in both of the Court's working languages?
- 7) Does the Prosecutor intend to apply to the Chamber for operational or procedural protective measures (including redactions)¹⁰ relating to the incriminating or exonerating evidence it plans to disclose soon? In relation to how many pieces of evidence will these measures be requested and by when?
- 8) Having reviewed the Prosecutor's most recent report on procedures initiated pursuant to articles 54(3)(e), 73 and 93 of the Statute,¹¹ the Chamber requests the Prosecutor to submit an accurate and up-to-date statement of the number and content of any documents or information obtained under article 54(3)(e) of the Statute in the present case?

¹⁷ Rule 69 of the Rules.

¹⁸ Article 69(6) of the Statute.

¹⁹ Regulation 54(m) of the Regulations of the Court.

12. The Chamber addresses the following questions to the Legal Representatives of the victims:

- 1) Do the legal representatives of the victims intend to lead evidence pertaining to the guilt or innocence of the accused?²⁰
- 2) If so, do they intend to apply for protective measures?
- 3) Does this evidence include testimony from traumatised persons, children, elderly persons or victims of sexual violence for whom special measures will be required?²¹ If so, when do the Legal Representatives intend to apply to the Chamber for the special measures provided for under rule 88 of the Rules?
- 4) Do the Legal Representatives of the victims intend to call witnesses and lead evidence pertaining to the issue of reparations at the same time as for the purposes of trial?²²

13. The Chamber addresses the following questions to the Prosecutor, Counsel for the Defence and the Legal Representatives of the victims:

- 1) Do the participants have any observations to make concerning the evidence disclosure system established by Pre-Trial Chamber I?
- 2) Do the participants intend to propose amendments to the eCourt protocol for the provision of evidence, material and witness information in electronic version that was used at the confirmation hearing?

²⁰ Trial Chamber I, Decision on victims' participation, 18 January 2007, ICC-01/04-01/06-1119; Appeals Chamber, Judgment on the appeals of The Prosecutor and The Defence against Trial Chamber I's Decision on Victims' Participation of 18 January 2008, 11 July 2008, ICC-01/04-01/06-1432, para. 94.

²¹ Rule 88 of the Rules.

²² Regulation 56 of the Regulations of the Court.

3) Do the participants have any observations to make concerning the place of the trial? Do they consider that a site visit to Bogoro by the Chamber could afford a greater understanding of the case? If so, should such a visit take place before the commencement of the hearings on the merits or in the course of the hearings?

14. The Chamber addresses the following questions to the Registry:

- 1) Has the Registry received new applications for participation from victims? If so, when will it transmit to the Chamber the report provided for in regulation 86(5) of the Regulations of the Court?
- 2) Are there any applications for protective measure under review? If so, how many are there and how soon does the Registry intend to respond to them? Would the current insecurity in Ituri influence the implementation of such measures?

FOR THESE REASONS,

The Chamber ORDERS the participants and the Registry to file their Written Responses no later than 24 November 2008 at 4.00 p.m.
