Trial Chamber II ("Trial Chamber" or "Chamber") of the International Criminal Court ("Court"), in the case of The Prosecutor v. Germain Katanga and Mathieu Ngudjolo Chui, issues the following decision, in accordance with regulation 35 of the Regulations of the Court ("Regulations") on the urgent "Prosecution's Motion to File Partial Table of Incriminating Evidence and Related Material, Confidential – Ex Parte, available to the Prosecution Only, on 4 May 2009 – Regulation 35".

- 1. The present decision deals with the third application<sup>2</sup> for variation of time limit under regulation 35 of the Regulations of the "Order concerning the Presentation of Incriminating Evidence and the E-Court Protocol".<sup>3</sup> This application was filed by the Office of the Prosecutor ("Prosecution") as a motion to comply with the order only in part, whereas in fact it is an application for variation of time limit. The Chamber notes that a previous application for variation of time limit, which pertained to the same deadline but which was motivated differently,<sup>4</sup> was rejected by the Chamber.<sup>5</sup>
- 2. The Chamber strongly disapproves of the practice by the Prosecution of failing to include all the relevant factual information about the state of progress of the work by the Prosecution in the previous application.<sup>6</sup> There are no indications that this information was not available to the Prosecution when the previous application was filed and the Chamber cannot conceive of any justification for not including it. This unwarranted omission deprived the Chamber of the opportunity to rule on the previous application in full knowledge of all the relevant factors and it now forces the Chamber to decide in extremis on a third application, which does, at last, contain the necessary elements for a proper assessment of the criteria laid down in regulation 35. The Chamber stresses that the practice of submitting repeated applications, with incomplete or different motivations, causes the loss of time, which the Chamber and the parties can ill afford. It is therefore incumbent upon the Prosecution to avoid such practices in the future.

3. Nevertheless, it remains that the reasons invoked by the Prosecution today are pertinent under the provisions of regulation 35 and the Chamber considers that it is reasonable under these circumstances to accord this final application for an extension of time limit. Moreover, the Chamber notes that counsel for the accused do not object to a further extension of time limit.<sup>7</sup>

FOR THESE REASONS,

The Chamber

- 1) REJECTS the Prosecution's suggestion that it may submit part of the Table of Incriminating Evidence to the Chamber on an ex parte basis;
- 2) GRANTS the Prosecution one last extension of time limit to submit the complete Table of Incriminating Evidence, by 20 May 2009 at 4 p.m.;
- 3) ORDERS the Prosecution to coordinate with the Registry and send such parts of the Table of Incriminating Evidence that have already been finalised for translation.
