The Civil Society Organization Network
Kituo Cha Sheria

Trial Chamber V (“Chamber”) of the International Criminal Court in the case of The Prosecutor v. William Samoei Ruto and Joshua Arap Sang (“Ruto and Sang case”) renders the following Decision on two requests for leave to submit amicus curiae observations.

1. On 24 August 2012 the Civil Society Organization Network (“CSO Network”) requested leave to file amicus curiae observations pursuant to Rule 103 of the Rules of Procedure and Evidence (“Rules”) on the modalities of victim participation at the trial phase of the proceedings.<sup>1</sup>
2. On 5 September 2012 Kituo Cha Sheria (Centre for Legal Empowerment) (“Kituo”) requested leave to submit amicus curiae observations pursuant to Rule 103 of the Rules.<sup>2</sup> Although Kituo has worked with victims who were granted participation rights in the two Kenya cases at the pre-trial stage, it is submitted that the amicus observations would not purport to represent the views of those victims but would rather focus on issues related to victims who have not yet applied for or been granted participatory status in either case.<sup>3</sup> Kituo submits that the three issues it would address are (i) the importance of meaningful participation for victims in Kenya; (ii) the victims’ application process and its timeframe; and (iii) the modalities of victims’ participation and their representation at trial.<sup>4</sup> In addition Kituo submits that it could consolidate its amicus observations with those of the CSO Network to the extent that the issues raised are similar.<sup>5</sup>
3. Rule 103(1) of the Rules set out that “a Chamber may, if it considers it desirable for the proper determination of the case, invite or grant leave to a State, organization or <sup>2</sup> Request for Leave to Submit Amicus Curiae observations pursuant to Rule 103 of the Rules of Procedure and Evidence, 5 September 2012, notified on 6 September 2012, ICC-01/09-01/11-454.

<sup>3</sup> ICC-01/09-01/11-454, para. 27.

person to submit, in writing or orally, any observation on any issue that the Chamber deems appropriate”.

4. The Chamber has already received from the Registry a “Draft Protocol on the application process for victim participation and reparations at the Trial stage”,<sup>6</sup> in response to which the Registry was informed that no further proposals concerning this issue would be required.<sup>7</sup> As regards the current requests, the Chamber does not consider that the submissions of the CSO Network and Kituo would assist at this stage with the proper determination of issues related to the victims’ application process and the modalities of their participation.

FOR THE FOREGOING REASON, THE CHAMBER HEREBY

REJECTS the requests of the two organisations to file amicus curiae briefs.

Done in both English and French, the English version being authoritative.
