The Presidency of the International Criminal Court (“Court”);

In the application for judicial review of [REDACTED] (“detainee”) dated 2012;¹

Noting the “Decision on the request for judicial review dated 18 August 2012” (“Presidency Decision”),² in which the Presidency determined that there was no prima facie reason to maintain the confidential ex parte classification of the decision and related documents in the file, subject to ensuring the redaction of any information which may identify the detainee and the guard named in the file, and further requested the Registrar to inform the Presidency of any reason for retaining such classification or of the need for any specific redactions prior to any publication;³

Considering that both the Registrar and the detainee informed that they did not object to the reclassification;⁴

Hereby orders the Registrar to:

- (i) File the attached decision and orders as public redacted versions of the Presidency Decision, ICC-RoR221-03/12-2-Conf-Exp⁵ and this present order;
- (ii) File public redacted versions of the following documents, redacting all information which may identify the detainee or the guard:

ICC-RoR221-03/12-1-Conf-Exp and its four annexes⁶ and ICC-RoR221-03/12-3-Conf-Exp.⁷

Done in both English and French, the English version being authoritative.
