Trial Chamber V (“Chamber”) of the International Criminal Court (“Court”) in the case of The Prosecutor v. Francis Kirimi Muthaura and Uhuru Muigai Kenyatta, pursuant to Articles 3 and 62 of the Rome Statute (“Statute”) and Rule 100 of the Rules of Procedure and Evidence (“Rules”), issues this Order requesting observations.

1. On 14 May 2012, the Chamber issued its Order scheduling a status conference,<sup>1</sup> in which it, inter alia, instructed the parties to file written submissions on the listed agenda items and on any other issues the parties might wish to add to the agenda.<sup>2</sup>
2. On 28 May 2012, the defence teams for Mr Muthaura and Mr Kenyatta (respectively “Muthaura Defence” and “Kenyatta Defence”) requested that the trial be held in the Republic of Kenya (“Kenya”).<sup>3</sup> Similarly, the Muthaura Defence requested the Chamber to consider the possibility of holding the trial in Kenya or, alternatively, in Arusha, Republic of Tanzania (“Tanzania”), at the premises of the International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda.<sup>4</sup> The Muthaura Defence requested the Chamber to invite the competent authorities of Kenya and Tanzania to inform the Chamber on the feasibility of hosting the trial proceedings on their territory and their willingness to do so.<sup>5</sup>
3. On 7 November 2012, the Chamber issued the “Decision on the defence request to change the place of the proceedings,”<sup>6</sup> holding that, in accordance with Rule 100 of the Rules “any party wishing to change the place of trial has to submit a formal application to the Presidency which must then seek the views of the relevant

Chamber” and “consult where the Court may sit”.<sup>7</sup> The Chamber thus rejected the Defence requests, but without prejudice to the right of the Defence to file an application with the Presidency pursuant to Rule 100 of the Rules.<sup>8</sup>

4. On 3 December 2012, the Muthaura Defence submitted its Application for a change of place where the Court shall sit for Trial (“Defence Application”) to the Presidency, requesting the Presidency to undertake consultations required by Rule 100(3) of the Rules with the governments of Kenya and Tanzania.<sup>9</sup> The Muthaura Defence submits that: a trial process significantly disrupts the life of an accused person and can have a detrimental effect on the health of an accused;<sup>10</sup> it is in the interests of justice, the witnesses, and the victims, to hold trials in the territory of the state where the alleged crimes occurred;<sup>11</sup> and that it will enhance the Court’s legal processes as the Trial Chamber will have the unique opportunity to obtain a sustained first-hand view of the locus in quo.<sup>12</sup>
5. On 21 December 2012, the Presidency issued the “Decision on Defence Application for a change of place where the Court shall sit for Trial” (“Presidency Decision”).<sup>13</sup> The Presidency emphasized the importance of the Chamber establishing the views of the parties before deciding whether to recommend the Presidency to consult the relevant national authorities and requested the Chamber to seek the views of the parties.<sup>14</sup>
6. The Chamber notes Article 3 of the Statute and Rule 100 of the Rules. Accordingly, the Chamber deems it valuable, for a proper assessment of the interests of justice in
