I, Judge Cuno Tarfusser, having been designated as Single Judge of Pre-Trial Chamber II of the International Criminal Court;

NOTING the “Requête en interprétation de la ‘Decision on the reclassification of documents in the record of the situation and of the case’(ICC-01/05-01/13-147)” dated 18 February 2014 (Mr Kilolo’s Defence Request”),¹ whereby the Defence for Mr Kilolo requests an “authentic interpretation” by the Single Judge of his “Decision on the reclassification of documents in the record of the situation and of the case”(ICC-01/05-01/13-147), namely in respect of an apparent contradiction relating to the modalities of the confirmation of the charges in this case;

NOTING that a request of such nature is not contemplated by the statutory instruments of the Court and should therefore be dismissed in limine;

NOTING nevertheless, for the sake of clarity, that in the context of the first appearances of the suspects the Single Judge clearly and univocally stated that “Rule 121 of the Rules of Procedure and Evidence makes it mandatory to the Chamber to set at this point the date for the confirmation of charges and rule 165(3) allows for the confirmation of charges relating to offences against the administration of justice to take place on the basis of written submissions, without a hearing” and, as a consequence, orally decided to proceed in this case on the basis of written submissions, in light of consultations held within the Chamber;

NOTING that, ever since, no contrary decision was issued either by the Single Judge or by the Chamber;

CONSIDERING that a decision of such importance (i.e., changing the modality of the confirmation of charges from written submissions into an oral hearing) would undoubtedly have to be taken in a thoroughly reasoned decision, specifically addressing the modalities of the confirmation of the charges and based on significant new facts;

CONSIDERING that, to this day, no such significant new facts occurred and that, therefore, no such decision has been issued;

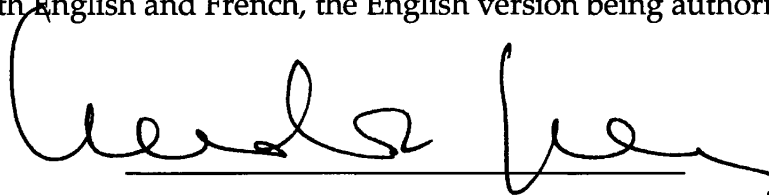

CONSIDERING that the fact that the confirmation of the charges in these proceedings will take place in writing has always been referred to and considered as a given fact, as confirmed for example by Decision ICC-01/05-01/13-93 dated 14 January 2014;

CONSIDERING, as a consequence, that the wording used in the “Decision on the reclassification of documents in the record of the situation and of the case” (addressing, as made apparent from its title, not the confirmation of charges proceedings but rather the reclassification of documents), by reference to “the confirmation hearing” being “scheduled for 18 April 2014”, whilst possibly imprecise, should not have given rise to a “request for interpretation”;

FOR THESE REASONS, THE SINGLE JUDGE HEREBY

DECIDES to confirm the oral decisions on the modalities and the calendar for the confirmation of the charges taken during the hearings for the first appearances of the suspects.

Done in both English and French, the English version being authoritative.
