Trial Chamber III (“Chamber”) of the International Criminal Court (“ICC” or “Court”), in the case of The Prosecutor v. Jean-Pierre Bemba Gombo (“Bemba case”), hereby issues the Decision on defence request for observations regarding the potential provisional release of Mr Jean-Pierre Bemba (“Decision”).

I. Background

1. On 4 June 2014, the defence for Mr Jean-Pierre Bemba Gombo (“defence”) filed its confidential ex parte defence request seeking a Chamber’s order regarding the potential provisional release of Mr Jean-Pierre Bemba (“Request”).¹ In particular, the defence requests that the Chamber instruct the Registry to request observations from two States regarding the potential provisional release of Mr Jean-Pierre Bemba Gombo into their respective territories.²
2. For the purpose of the present Decision and in accordance with Article 21(1) of the Rome Statute (“Statute”), the Chamber has considered Articles 60, 61(11), 64(6)(a), 67 of the Statute and Rule 119(2) and (3) of the Rules of the Rules of Procedure and Evidence (“Rules”).
3. The defence requests that the Chamber seek the views of two States within the context of Rule 119(3) of the Rules on “Conditional release”. Pursuant to Rule 119(2) of the Rules, a decision on conditional release could be taken by the Chamber at the request of “the person concerned, or the Prosecutor or on its own initiative". In the present case, the Chamber has not decided to act proprio motu and there is no request submitted by the prosecution. The accused may therefore first submit a legally and factually substantiated request for provisional release.

² Public Redacted version of “Defence Request to Trial Chamber to request [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] for their submissions regarding the potential provisional release of Mr Jean-Pierre Bemba”, 9 June 2014, ICC-01/05-01/08-3081-Red, paragraph 5.

4. In view of the above, pending a substantiated defence's request for provisional release, the Chamber hereby DISMISSES the defence's Request as premature.

Done in both English and French, the English version being authoritative.
