Judge Geoffrey Henderson, acting as Single Judge on behalf of Trial Chamber I ('Single Judge') of the International Criminal Court, in the case of The Prosecutor v. Laurent Gbagbo, having regard to Article 64(3)(a), (3)(c), (6)(c) and (6)(e) of the Rome Statute, issues this Order for Submissions on a Redaction Protocol.

1. On 4 November 2014, the first status conference in this case was held before the Trial Chamber. During this status conference, the Presiding Judge said:

[...] I really would like to encourage [...] for you to enter into active discussions on the protocols to be used at the trial. The Chamber wishes you to take the protocols as adopted in the Kenya cases as an inspiration, or as a starting point, or to bring in elements that are included in the protocols used in the Kenya cases. Of course other best practice aspects may be included, but the Chamber feels that these protocols provide at least from our point of view a good starting point for the development of protocols in this case.<sup>1</sup>

2. The Single Judge therefore directs the parties to expeditiously conclude discussions on the redaction approach to be adopted in this case and make submissions on a proposed redaction protocol. This protocol is to specify redaction categories and appropriate timeframes for which uncontested redactions, if any, may be applied without Chamber authorisation.

FOR THE FOREGOING REASONS, THE SINGLE JUDGE

DIRECTS the Office of the Prosecutor, after concluding its inter-partes redactions discussions, to submit a proposed redaction protocol and any corresponding submissions by the filing deadline on Wednesday, 19 November 2014; and

DIRECTS the defence for Mr Gbagbo to respond to these submissions by the filing deadline on Friday, 21 November 2014.
