Trial Chamber VI ('Chamber') of the International Criminal Court ('Court'), in the case of The Prosecutor v. Bosco Ntaganda, having regard to Articles 54(3)(e) and 67(2) of the Rome Statute ('Statute') and Rules 77 and 82 of the Rules of Procedure and Evidence ('Rules'), issues this 'Second decision on Prosecution request for authorisation of non-disclosure of five documents'.

I. Background and submissions

1. On 13 March 2015, the Office of the Prosecutor ('Prosecution') filed the 'Prosecution request for authorisation of non-disclosure of five documents obtained pursuant to article 54(3)(e)' ('Request'),¹ in which it sought authorisation for non-disclosure of five documents ('Five Documents') that were obtained pursuant to Article 54(3)(e) of the Statute, and for which the provider of the documents ('Information Provider') had refused to consent to disclosure.
2. On 7 April 2015, the Defence responded to the Request, opposing it.²
3. On 11 June 2015, the Chamber issued the 'Decision on Prosecution request for authorisation of non-disclosure of five documents' ('First Decision'),³ in which it instructed the Prosecution to consult with the Information Provider to again seek the Information Provider's consent, advising it of the ruling of the Chamber. The Prosecution was further instructed to consult with the Information Provider on 'whether it is possible to disclose certain information in or related to the Five Documents to the Defence. Such information could include, but is not limited to: (i) a redacted version of some or all of the Five Documents; (ii) a summary of the information contained in the Five

Documents; (iii) a description of the type of documents that make up the Five Documents; and/or (iv) the identity of the Information Provider'.⁴ The Prosecution was ordered to report to the Chamber on the outcome of these consultations by 30 June 2015.⁵

4. On 30 June 2015, the Prosecution filed its report on its further consultations with the Information Provider ('Report').⁶ The Prosecution informs the Chamber that the Information Provider does not consent to disclosure of its identity to the Defence.⁷ However, the Information Provider does consent to the disclosure of summaries of four of the Five Documents, but not to the disclosure of the documents in any other form. The Prosecution has prepared summaries ('Four Summaries'), which are approved by the Information Provider, that 'briefly describe the nature of the documents and their content, provide the dates of the documents, and a summary of the specific content that is relevant to the preparation of the Defence'.⁸ The Information Provider does not consent to disclosure of the other document in any form.⁹ The Prosecution further provides reasons why the said document cannot be disclosed to the Defence without the Information Provider's identity becoming known.¹⁰

II. Analysis

5. The Chamber recalls its previous finding that

[T]he Five Documents are either based on original sources that have been disclosed to the Defence in their original form, or are sufficiently similar to other material disclosed to the Defence due to a common authorship or identical underlying sources. Indeed, in the Chamber's assessment, all essential elements contained in the Five Documents can be found in the analogous materials indicated by the Prosecution.¹¹

6. Whilst the Chamber already considered that 'no undue prejudice to the accused would arise from non-disclosure of the Five Documents',¹² having reviewed the Four Summaries, it is satisfied that any potential prejudice would be mitigated by the provision of these summaries to the Defence. The Chamber therefore authorises the non-disclosure of the Five Documents.

FOR THE FOREGOING REASONS, THE CHAMBER HEREBY

GRANTS the Request;

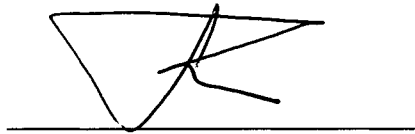

INSTRUCTS the Prosecution to disclose the Four Summaries to the Defence, by 30 July 2015; and INSTRUCTS the Prosecution to file confidential redacted and public redacted versions of its Report, by 30 July 2015.
