Trial Chamber III (“Trial Chamber” or “Chamber”) of the International Criminal Court (“Court” or “ICC”), in the case of The Prosecutor v. Jean-Pierre Bemba Gombo, (“Bemba case”) issues the following Decision ordering observations on the « Requête de Mise en liberté provisoire de M. Jean-Pierre Bemba Gombo ».

I. Background and submissions

1. On 3 July 2008, Mr Jean-Pierre Bemba Gombo (“Mr Bemba”) was surrendered to the seat of the Court by the authorities of the Kingdom of Belgium. He has since then been detained at the ICC detention centre.
2. On 22 November 2010, the trial against Mr Bemba commenced, as had been scheduled at a status conference on 21 October 2010.¹
3. On 17 December 2010, the Chamber issued its “Decision on the review of detention of Mr Jean-Pierre Bemba Gombo pursuant to the Appeals Judgment on 19 November 2010”,² by which it ordered that Mr Bemba remain in detention for the course of the proceedings in his case.³
4. On 3 May 2011, the defence filed its « Requête de Mise en liberté provisoire de M. Jean-Pierre Bemba Gombo » (Request for Interim Release),⁴ requesting the interim release of Mr Bemba. The defence notes that at the present stage of the proceedings, all but one of the Office of the Prosecutor (“prosecution”) vulnerable witnesses have already given testimony before the Chamber and there has been no indication that vulnerable witnesses have been intimidated by Mr Bemba or by any person with whom he is associated to. The accused seeks interim release into the Kingdom of Belgium, to spend time with his wife and young children [REDACTED]. The request is limited to the Court's summer judicial recess (from Friday 15 July 2011 at 17.30 p.m. to Monday 8 August 2011 at 9.00 a.m.) and every weekend or every other weekend which, in the view of the defence, will not disrupt the efficient conduct of the proceedings.

II. Relevant provisions

5. In accordance with Article 21 (1) of the Rome Statute ("Statute"), the Chamber has considered the following provisions of the Rules of Procedure and Evidence ("Rules") and the Regulations of the Court:

Rule 118 of the Rules of Procedure and Evidence

Pre-trial detention at the seat of the Court

3. After the first appearance, a request for interim release must be made in writing. The Prosecutor shall be given notice of such a request. The Pre-Trial Chamber shall decide after having received observations in writing of the Prosecutor and the detained person. The Pre-Trial Chamber may decide to hold a hearing, at the request of the Prosecutor or the detained person or on its own initiative. A hearing must be held at least once every year.

Rule 119 of the Rules of Procedure and Evidence

Conditional release

3. Before imposing or amending any conditions restricting liberty, the Pre-Trial Chamber shall seek the views of the Prosecutor, the person concerned, any relevant State and victims that have communicated with the Court in that case and whom the Chamber considers could be at risk as a result of a release or conditions imposed.

Regulation 34 of the Regulations of the Court

Time limits for documents filed with the Court

Unless otherwise provided in the Statute, Rules or these Regulations, or unless otherwise ordered:

(b) A response referred to in regulation 24 shall be filed within 21 days of notification in accordance with regulation 31 of the document to which the participant is responding;

Regulation 51 of the Regulations of the Court

Decision on interim release

For the purposes of a decision on interim release, the Pre-Trial Chamber shall seek observations from the host State and from the State to which the person seeks to be released.

III. Analysis and Conclusions

6. Before deciding upon a request for interim release, the Chamber shall seek the views of (i) the prosecution, (ii) the victims that have communicated with the Court in the case and whom the Chamber considers could be at risk as a result of the release or conditions imposed, and (iii) the host State and the State to which the person seeks to be released.
7. The Chamber further notes that Mr Bemba has requested the interim release to spend time with his wife and young children [REDACTED] in the Kingdom of Belgium;
8. For these reasons, the Trial Chamber hereby:

(a) REQUESTS the prosecution, legal representatives of Victims authorised to participate in the trial proceedings, and the Office of the Public Counsel for Victims acting on behalf of the victims' applicants whose applications for participation have not yet been decided by the Chamber, to submit their views on the Request for Interim Release by no later than Thursday 19 May 2011;

(b) ORDERS the Registrar to notify the competent authorities of the Kingdom of Belgium and the Kingdom of the Netherlands of the present decision and the Request for Interim Release with public Annexes thereto;

(c) INVITES the competent authorities of the Kingdom of the Netherlands to submit, by no later than Friday 27 May 2011, its observations on the Request for Interim Release, and, in particular, on the practical aspects of Mr Bemba's release to the Kingdom of Belgium; and

(d) INVITES the competent authorities of the Kingdom of Belgium to submit, by no later than Friday 27 May 2011, observations on the Request for Interim Release, and, in particular, on the issues of (i) whether there would be any legal impediment for Mr Bemba to enter and leave the territory of the Kingdom of Belgium, should he be conditionally released by the Chamber during the duration of the Court's summer judicial recess (from Friday 15 July 2011 at 17.30 p.m. to Monday 8 August 2011 at 9.00 a.m.) and/or every weekend or every other weekend; and (ii) whether the Kingdom of Belgium would be in a position to impose one or more of the conditions set in Rule 119 of the Rules, should the Chamber order the interim release of Mr Bemba to the territory of the Kingdom of Belgium.

Done in both English and French, the English version being authoritative.
