

Original: English

No.: ICC-02/05-01/09

Date: 11 July 2016

PRE-TRIAL CHAMBER II

Before: Judge Cuno Tarfusser, Presiding Judge
Judge Marc Perrin de Brichambaut
Judge Chang-ho Chung

SITUATION IN DARFUR, SUDAN

IN THE CASE OF

THE PROSECUTOR v. OMAR HASSAN AHMAD AL BASHIR

Public Document

Decision on the non-compliance by the Republic of Uganda with the request to arrest and surrender Omar Al-Bashir to the Court and referring the matter to the United Nations Security Council and the Assembly of State Parties to the Rome Statute

Decision to be notified, in accordance with Regulation 31 of the Regulations of the Court, to:

The Office of the Prosecutor

Fatou Bensouda

James Stewart

Counsel for the Defence

Legal Representatives of Victims

Legal Representatives of Applicants

Unrepresented Victims

Unrepresented Applicants for Participation/Reparation

The Office of Public Counsel for Victims

The Office of Public Counsel for the Defence

States Representatives

Competent authorities of the Republic of Uganda

Others

Presidency

REGISTRY

---

Registrar

Herman von Hebel

Victims and Witnesses Unit

Detention Section

Victims Participation and Reparations
Section

Others

Pre-Trial Chamber II (the “Chamber”) of the International Criminal Court (the “Court”), acting under article 87(7) of the Rome Statute (the “Statute”), issues this finding of non-compliance by the Republic of Uganda (“Uganda”) with the request for arrest and surrender of Omar Hassan Ahmad Al-Bashir (“Omar Al-Bashir”) to the Court and decision referring the matter to the United Nations Security Council (the “Security Council”) and the Assembly of the State Parties to the Rome Statute (the “ASP”).

I. Background

1. On 31 March 2005, the Security Council, acting under Chapter VII of the Charter of the United Nations, adopted Resolution 1593(2005), whereby it referred the situation in Darfur, Sudan, since 1 July 2002 to the Prosecutor of the Court and decided, inter alia, “that the Government of Sudan [...] shall cooperate fully with and provide any necessary assistance to the Court and the Prosecutor pursuant to this resolution”.<sup>1</sup>

2. Acting upon this referral, the Prosecutor requested a warrant of arrest against Omar Al-Bashir for war crimes, crimes against humanity and genocide committed in Darfur, Sudan.<sup>2</sup> Two warrants for the arrest of Omar Al-Bashir were subsequently issued by Pre-Trial Chamber I, the first on 4 March 2009 for a number of war crimes and crimes against humanity<sup>3</sup> and the second on 12 July 2010 for the crime of genocide.<sup>4</sup> To date, these warrants of arrest remain to be executed.

---

<sup>1</sup> S/RES/1593 (2005).

<sup>2</sup> A public redacted version of the Prosecutor’s application for a warrant of arrest is available at ICC-02/05-157-AnxA.

<sup>3</sup> Pre-Trial Chamber I, “Warrant of Arrest for Omar Hassan Ahmad Al Bashir”, ICC-02/05-01/09-1

<sup>4</sup> Pre-Trial Chamber I, “Second Warrant of Arrest for Omar Hassan Ahmad Al Bashir”, ICC-02/05-01/09-95.

3. As a State Party to the Rome Statute, Uganda was notified of the requests for arrest and surrender of Omar Al-Bashir to the Court pursuant to the two warrants on 18 March 2009<sup>5</sup> and 31 August 2010<sup>6</sup> respectively.

4. On 11 May 2016, acting on the basis of media reports of Omar Al-Bashir's travel to Uganda in order to attend the inauguration ceremony of President Yoweri Museveni, the Registrar of the Court transmitted to the Ugandan authorities a note verbale reminding them of Uganda's obligations, as a State Party to the Statute, to cooperate with the Court for the immediate arrest and surrender of Omar Al-Bashir to the Court, pursuant to article 89(1) of the Statute, in the event that he attended the inauguration ceremony in Uganda.<sup>7</sup> The note verbale also reminded Uganda of its obligation to consult with the Court should it foresee any difficulties in implementing the request for cooperation by the Court.

5. On 12 May 2016, the Registrar informed the Chamber that media reports suggested that Omar Al-Bashir had indeed travelled to Uganda and had attended the inauguration ceremony of President Yoweri Museveni in Kampala, and that no reply to the Registrar's note verbale had been received by the Court from the authorities of Uganda.<sup>8</sup>

6. On 17 May 2016, as a follow-up of the information received from the Registrar, the Chamber issued a decision whereby it noted that: (i) in case of non-compliance with obligations to cooperate with the Court, one of the tools available to the Court pursuant to article 87(7) of the Statute is to make a finding of non-cooperation by the State and refer the matter to the ASP or, where the matter had been referred to the Court by the Security Council, to

---

<sup>5</sup> See reference in ICC-02/05-01/09-260-Conf-AnxII, p. 3.

<sup>6</sup> See ICC-02/05-01/09-113-Conf-Exp-Anx1, pp. 244-246.

<sup>7</sup> This note verbale was also filed in the record of the case: ICC-02/05-01/09-260-Conf-AnxII.

<sup>8</sup> ICC-02/05-01/09-260-Conf and its annexes.

the Security Council; and (ii) prior to any such step being taken, regulation 109 of the Regulations of the Court mandates that “the Chamber shall hear from the requested State”.<sup>9</sup> The Chamber therefore invited Uganda to provide its observations in accordance with regulation 109 of the Regulations of the Court in order for the Chamber to determine the course of action in relation to Uganda’s non-compliance with its obligation to arrest and surrender to the Court Omar Al-Bashir, including on whether resort to the measures under article 87(7) would be warranted in the present circumstances.<sup>10</sup>

7. On 27 June 2016, the Chamber received from the Registrar a note verbale by the Ugandan authorities dated 24 June 2016 providing submissions on Uganda’s failure to arrest and surrender Omar Al-Bashir to the Court.<sup>11</sup> Uganda submits that: (i) “the invitation to President Al-Bashir was informed by the standpoint that good relations with all countries in the region is essential to the maintenance of peace and security and that continuous engagement of all the leaders, Al-Bashir included, is both important and unavoidable”;<sup>12</sup> and (ii) the African Union Assembly of Heads of State and Government had decided that the African Union member states, in accordance with article 98 of the Statute concerning immunities, shall not cooperate with the Court’s request for arrest and surrender of Omar Al-Bashir to the Court.<sup>13</sup>

---

<sup>9</sup> “Decision requesting the Republic of Uganda to provide submissions on its failure to arrest and surrender Omar Al-Bashir to the Court”, 17 May 2016, ICC-02/05-01/09-262.

<sup>10</sup> Ibid.

<sup>11</sup> ICC-02/05-01/09-265-Conf-Anx2.

<sup>12</sup> Ibid., page 3.

<sup>13</sup> Ibid.

II. Analysis

8. Pursuant to article 87(7) of the Statute, in case of non-compliance by a State Party with a request to cooperate with the Court contrary to the provisions of the Statute, one of the measures available to the Court is to make a finding of non-compliance by the State and refer the matter to the ASP and/or the Security Council when the latter referred the matter to the Court.

9. Uganda is a State Party to the Statute. It has an obligation to cooperate with the Court in accordance with Part 9 of the Statute, including with requests for arrest and surrender to the Court of persons against whom a warrant of arrest has been issued by the Pre-Trial Chamber under article 58 of the Statute. As a State Party, Uganda, pursuant to article 97 of the Statute, has also the obligation, in case of any problem which in its view may impede or prevent the execution of a request for cooperation by the Court, to consult with the Court without delay in order to resolve the matter.

10. In the present case, and notwithstanding its obligations to cooperate with the Court, Uganda did not arrest Omar Al-Bashir while he was present on its territory and surrender him to the Court nor did it raise with the Court any problem it might have identified in the execution of such request. In fact, Uganda did not even respond to the note verbale transmitted by the Court on 11 May 2016.

11. The Chamber recalls that the Court has already addressed the issue of the decision by the African Union directing its members not to cooperate with the Court in the arrest and surrender of Omar Al-Bashir as a justification for the failure of State Parties to the Statute to comply with requests for cooperation by the Court. In particular, as the African Union decision is based on the purported immunity of Omar Al-Bashir as a serving Head of State, the Chamber recalls that, already on 9 April 2014, it stated in this regard:

[B]y issuing Resolution 1593(2005) the [Security Council] decided that the “Government of Sudan [...] shall cooperate fully with and provide any necessary assistance to the Court and the Prosecutor pursuant to this resolution”. Since immunities attached to Omar Al Bashir are a procedural bar from prosecution before the Court, the cooperation envisaged in said resolution was meant to eliminate any impediment to the proceedings before the Court, including the lifting of immunities. Any other interpretation would render the [Security Council] decision requiring that Sudan “cooperate fully” and “provide any necessary assistance to the Court” senseless. Accordingly, the “cooperation of that third State [Sudan] for the waiver of the immunity”, as required under the last sentence of article 98(1) of the Statute, was already ensured by the language used in paragraph 2 of [Security Council] Resolution 1593(2005). By virtue of said paragraph, the [Security Council] implicitly waived the immunities granted to Omar Al Bashir under international law and attached to his position as a Head of State.<sup>14</sup>

12. In this sense, the Chamber clarified that “there also exists no impediment at the horizontal level” between a State Party to the Statute and the Republic of the Sudan regarding the arrest and surrender to the Court of Omar Al-Bashir.<sup>15</sup> Importantly, the Chamber stressed that since the Security Council, acting under Chapter VII of the United Nations Charter, had effectively lifted the immunities of Omar Al-Bashir in Resolution 1593(2005), a State Party to the Statute could not invoke any other decision, including that of the African Union directed to its member states, providing for any obligation to the contrary.<sup>16</sup>

13. The same considerations apply squarely to Uganda and its submissions that by failing to arrest and surrender Omar Al-Bashir to the Court it abided by decisions of the African Union.<sup>17</sup>

14. The Chamber notes the argument by Uganda that the invitation of Omar Al-Bashir was part of an effort to the realization of permanent peace and stability in the region and that “it is not in Uganda’s and the region’s interest

---

<sup>14</sup> “Decision on the Cooperation of the Democratic Republic of the Congo Regarding Omar Al Bashir’s Arrest and Surrender to the Court”, 9 April 2014, ICC-02/05-01/09-195, para. 29 (footnotes omitted).

<sup>15</sup> Ibid.

<sup>16</sup> Ibid., para. 31.

<sup>17</sup> ICC-02/05-01/09-265-Conf-Anx2, page 3.

to isolate The Sudan by excluding its leader from any occasion that brings together other regional leaders".<sup>18</sup> In this regard, the Chamber, while sensitive to these political considerations, stresses that State Parties to the Statute must pursue any legitimate, or even desirable, political objectives within the boundaries of their legal obligations vis-à-vis the Court. Indeed, it is not in the nature of legal obligations that they can be put aside or qualified for political expediency.

15. Given that Uganda's explanation as to its failure to arrest and surrender Omar Al-Bashir to the Court is limited to these two aspects and that this failure prevents the Court from exercising its functions and powers under the Statute within the meaning of article 87(7), the Chamber is of the view that it is appropriate to make a finding of non-compliance by Uganda with the Court's request for cooperation and refer the matter to the ASP and the Security Council under article 87(7) of the Statute.

16. In this context, the Chamber reiterates once again<sup>19</sup> that, unlike domestic courts, the Court has no direct enforcement mechanism and must rely on cooperation by the States in order to fulfil its mandate. It is therefore of particular importance that the Security Council, after referring a situation to the Prosecutor of the Court as constituting a threat to international peace and security,<sup>20</sup> responds with any appropriate measure to the failure on the part of States Parties to the Statute to cooperate with the Court in order for it to fulfil the mandate with which it has been entrusted. In the absence of follow-up

---

<sup>18</sup> Ibid.

<sup>19</sup> See also "Decision on the Non-compliance of the Republic of Chad with the Cooperation Requests Issued by the Court Regarding the Arrest and Surrender of Omar Hassan Ahmad Al-Bashir", 27 March 2013, ICC-02/05-01/09-151, para. 22; "Decision on the Cooperation of the Democratic Republic of the Congo Regarding Omar Al Bashir's Arrest and Surrender to the Court", 9 April 2014, ICC-02/05-01/09-195, para. 33; "Decision on the Prosecutor's Request for a Finding of Non-Compliance Against the Republic of Sudan", 9 March 2015, ICC-02/05-01/09-227, para. 17.

<sup>20</sup> Resolution 1593(2005).

actions on the part of the Security Council any referral to the Court under Chapter VII of the United Nations Charter would become futile and incapable of achieving its ultimate goal of putting an end to impunity. Similar considerations demand that appropriate follow-up actions in response to the non-compliance by a State Party to the Statute with requests for cooperation by the Court be taken by the ASP with a view to ensuring that the Court is able to exercise fully its functions and powers under the Statute.

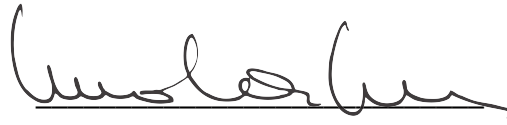

17. Regulation 109(4) of the Regulations of the Court stipulates that, in case a finding has been made under article 87(7) of the Statute, it is the President of the Court that refers the matter to the ASP and/or the Security Council. The present decision is therefore notified to the President in order for it to be transmitted to the ASP and, through the Secretary-General of the United Nations, to the Security Council.

FOR THESE REASONS, THE CHAMBER

FINDS, pursuant to article 87(7) of the Statute, that the Republic of Uganda has failed to comply with the request for arrest and surrender of Omar Al-Bashir to the Court, thereby preventing the Court from exercising its functions and powers under the Statute; and

DECIDES that the matter of Uganda's non-compliance with the request for arrest and surrender of Omar Al-Bashir to the Court be referred, through the President of the Court in accordance with regulations 109(4) of the Regulations of the Court, to the Assembly of States Parties to the Rome Statute and the United Nations Security Council.

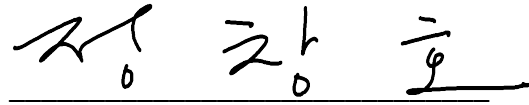

Done in both English and French, the English version being authoritative.

Judge Cuno Tarfusser
Presiding Judge

Judge Marc Perrin de Brichambaut

Judge Chang-ho Chung

Dated this 11 July 2016

At The Hague, The Netherlands