Judge Bertram Schmitt, acting as Single Judge on behalf of Trial Chamber IX ('Single Judge' and 'Chamber', respectively) of the International Criminal Court, in the case of The Prosecutor v. Dominic Ongwen, having regard to Rule 192 of the Rules of Procedure and Evidence and Regulation 23 bis(3) of the Regulations of the Court, issues the following 'Decision on Defence Request for Disclosure and Transmission of Materials Belonging to the Accused'.

1. On 10 July 2018, the Defence of Mr Ongwen ('Defence') filed a request that the Registry be ordered to disclose and transmit certain items ('Items') which were in Mr Ongwen's possession at the time of his transfer to the Court.<sup>1</sup>
2. The Defence submits that the Items may reveal or corroborate certain points of interest to the Defence, such as, inter alia, the circumstances surrounding Mr Ongwen's escape from the LRA or the legality of the procedural steps taken at the time of the transfer of custody of Mr Ongwen to representatives of the Registry.<sup>2</sup>
3. On 16 July 2018, the Registry filed its observations ('Observations') to the Request, reiterating a previously submitted willingness to either transmit the Items to the Defence or facilitate their inspection.<sup>3</sup>
4. First, the Chamber notes that the Request is filed confidential ex parte, Defence only. However, the explanation provided by the Defence that this classification is necessary since the motion 'discusses confidential, ex parte, personal items'<sup>4</sup> is not convincing. The Defence is hereby ordered to either request reclassification of its Request or file a public-redacted version thereof within five days of receipt of this decision. Thereafter, the Registry is instructed to also request

<sup>3</sup> Registry's Report on Mr Ongwen's personal items kept in the Registry's vault, ICC-02/04-01/15-1307-Conf-Exp, available only to the Defence with a confidential ex parte annex available to the Defence only, ICC-02/04-01/15-1307-Conf-Exp-Anx.

reclassification of its Observations or provide a public-redacted version within five days of the reclassification of the Request or receipt of its public-redacted version.

5. In light of the Observations, the submissions by the Defence and the fact that the Items were in Mr Ongwen's possession before the Registry obtained custody over them, the Single Judge finds that there are no countervailing considerations against returning the Items to the accused. Accordingly, the Single Judge orders the Registry to transmit the Items, as specified in paragraph 5 of the Request,<sup>5</sup> to the accused to the extent possible. Should, for any safety or security reason, the return to the accused of any of the Items not be possible, the item in question is to be securely stored in accordance with the applicable procedure.

FOR THE FOREGOING REASONS, THE SINGLE JUDGE HEREBY

ORDERS the Defence and the Registry to either request reclassification of their filings or file public-redacted versions thereof, in accordance with paragraph 4; and

ORDERS the Registry to transmit the Items to the accused, subject to the last sentence of paragraph 5 above.

Done in both English and French, the English version being authoritative.

 Judge Bertram Schmitt, Single Judge
