Mr Peter Lewis

The Appeals Chamber of the International Criminal Court,

In the appeal of the Prosecutor against the oral decision of Trial Chamber I pursuant to article 81(3)(c)(i) of the Statute of 16 January 2019 (ICC-02/11-01/15-T-234-Eng),

Issues the following

ORDER

1. The Registrar, or his representative, is requested to attend the hearing scheduled for Friday, 1 February 2019.<sup>1</sup>
2. At the hearing, the Appeals Chamber invites the parties and participants to address the following issue:

On what legal basis, if any, is it possible to impose conditions on the release of a person following an acquittal? Is it necessary to first establish the existence of ‘exceptional circumstances’ for continued detention within the meaning of article 81(3)(c)(i) of the Statute prior to determining whether conditions may be imposed instead of continued detention? Alternatively, must the release of an acquitted person, with conditions, be considered and found inappropriate, before the existence of ‘exceptional circumstances’ justifying continued detention under article 81(3)(c)(i) can be considered?

3. The parties and participants will be invited to address the Appeals Chamber on the above issue as follows:
  - a. The Prosecutor (20 minutes)
  - b. Legal Representative of Victims (20 minutes)
  - c. Mr Laurent Gbagbo (20 minutes)
  - d. Mr Charles Blé Goudé (20 minutes)

<sup>1</sup> ‘Decision on the Prosecutor’s request for suspensive effect of her appeal under article 81(3)(c)(ii) of the Statute and directions on the conduct of the appeal proceedings’, ICC-02/11-01/15-1243 (OA14).

4. Following observations from the Registry, the parties and participants will also be invited to address the Appeals Chamber on the conditions proposed by the Prosecutor and will be afforded 15 minutes each.<sup>2</sup>
5. Additional questions may be put to the parties and participants from the bench in respect of the above issue or any other relevant issues.

Done in both English and French, the English version being authoritative.
