THE INTERNATIONAL CRIMINAL TRIBUNAL FOR RWANDA ("the Tribunal")

SITTING as Trial Chamber I, composed of Judge Møse, presiding, Judge Jai Ram Reddy, and Judge Sergei Alekseevich Egorov;

BEING SEIZED OF the "Requête conjointe de la défense aux fins d'obtenir la cooperation de l'état Rwandais conformément à l'article 28 du Statut du Tribunal", with annexes, filed on 28 July 2003; the Addendum thereto filed by the Defence for Bagosora on 17 November 2003; and the "Liste commune des documents reclamé", etc., filed on 1 December 2003;

CONSIDERING the oral submissions of the parties on 16 and 17 December 2003, and 26 February 2004; the written submissions of the Prosecution filed on 18 December 2003; the written submissions of the Defence for Nsengiyumva, filed on 19 December 2003; the written submissions of the Defence for Bagosora, filed on 10 March 2004; and the informal oral submissions of the parties on 16 December 2003 and 27 February 2004;

HEREBY DECIDES the motion.

INTRODUCTION

1. This joint Defence motion requests the Chamber to order the Government of Rwanda, pursuant to Article 28 of the Statute, to allow the Defence to visit various ministries to review and obtain documents listed in an annex. An order is also requested for the disclosure of judicial records, if they exist, of certain named individuals.

SUBMISSIONS

2. The motion was originally accompanied by a list of documents requested by each Defence team, which were subsequently consolidated into a joint list at the request of the Chamber. Generally, the documents concern the organization of the Rwandan army and government, and the personal situation and status of the Accused. The motion states that requests for these documents have been addressed to the Prosecution. The Defence for Bagosora and for Nsengiyumva also submitted evidence of written requests for some of the documents to the Ministries of Defence, Foreign Affairs and Justice of the Government of Rwanda, attached at Annex B. The Defence for Kabiligi and for Ntabakuze did not demonstrate that they had made any requests to the Government of Rwanda.

3. The Prosecution filed no formal response to the motion, but questioned whether the Defence had shown due diligence in requesting the documents from the Rwandan Government before seeking the assistance of the Chamber under Article 28. It also asserted that some of the documents had already been disclosed to the Defence, were publicly available, or were probably not in the possession of the Government of Rwanda.

DISCUSSION

4. Article 28(1) imposes an obligation on States to "cooperate with the International Tribunal for Rwanda in the investigation and prosecution of persons accused of committing serious violations of international humanitarian law". Article 28(2) requires States to comply with requests for assistance issued by a Trial Chamber. The jurisprudence of this Tribunal and that of the Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia (whose statute contains a provision mirroring Article 28) establishes that a Trial Chamber is empowered to issue requests for the production of documents by a State.¹ The party seeking the request by the Trial Chamber must specifically identify, to the extent possible, the documents sought; articulate their relevance to the trial; and show that efforts to obtain the documents have been unsuccessful.²

5. The present motion does not expressly request the disclosure of the documents; rather, it seeks an order directing the Government of Rwanda to give the Defence access to its files and archives in order to locate and obtain the documents. Previous requests for broad categories of documents from the archives of a State have been rejected by this Tribunal.³ A fortiori, requests to inspect archives are equally inappropriate and over-broad, particularly absent any showing that inspections are necessary to obtain the documents. The same policy of cooperation that requires parties to make non-judicial requests to States prior to making an application to the Chamber under Article 28, also requires that requests for cooperation be tailored as narrowly as possible to the needs of the requesting party, and based on the presumption of good faith compliance by the requested State.⁴ A request for inspection of documents, therefore, will not be issued. The Chamber will treat the motion as a request that the Government of Rwanda itself locate and transmit the documents to the Defence. The Chamber will refer to the documents requested on the basis of the codes used in the Defence's consolidated list of documents, filed on 1 December 2003.

i) Document Requests Withdrawn

6. The Defence acknowledged that it already possessed some of the documents identified in the motion, in particular the Rwandan Penal Code in 1994 (item I.a on the Defence's consolidated list) and a Presidential decree concerning the organization of the government in April 1992 (item III.j). These requests are considered withdrawn.

ii) Documents Not Previously Requested from the Government of Rwanda

7. The Defence pleaded that it had requested all of the documents from the Prosecution, but made no showing that the Prosecution had any obligation to obtain these documents. Requests to the Prosecution do not discharge the Defence's obligation to make reasonable efforts to obtain the documents directly from the State before seeking the Chamber's assistance. The requirement reflects the fundamental values of comity and respect between this Tribunal and States. States must have a reasonable opportunity to assist the Tribunal

The importance of making an initial request is underlined by the changes to the Rules the ICTY in Rule 54 bis, which require the movant to "explain the steps that have been taken by the applicant to secure the State's assistance" and permits the Trial Chamber to reject a request "if no reasonable steps have been taken by the applicant to obtain the documents or information from the State".

voluntarily, and to respond to the requests, before being subject to a mandatory order. Prior decisions have adhered strictly to the requirement that the Defence show that a prior request has been made and that it has been unsuccessful.⁵

8. The Defence for Bagosora and the Defence for Nsengiyumva have previously requested some, but not all, of the documents, albeit in language that does not exactly mirror the description of the documents in the present motion. Further, some of the same categories of documents have been requested, but for more restricted dates. The previous requests to the Government of Rwanda cover the following categories of documents on the Defence's consolidated list: I.c (Journaux Officiels from July 1992 to December 1993); II (administrative, military and personal files of the Accused Théoneste Bagosora, but not the other Accused); III.b (a 1987 report on national security); III.c (the administrative files of seven named officials); III.e (ordres de bataille and/or liste nominative of the Paracmando Battalion dated 1 October 1993 and 1 January 1994); III.f (ordres de bataille and/or liste nominative of the Reconnaissance Battalion issued on 1 January 1994); III.g (ordres de bataille and/or liste nominative of the Presidential Guard issued on 1 October 1993 and 1 January 1994); III.h (ordres de bataille and/or liste nominative of the Gendarmerie Nationale issued on 1 October 1993, 1 January 1994 and 1 March 1994); III.k (a directive issued by the Ministry of Defence in late January or early February 1993 limiting the powers of the chef de cabinet); III.o (a letter from the Accused Bagosora to the commander of UNAMIR, dated late February or early March 1994, protesting provocative acts against him by Belgian UNAMIR troops); IV.a (copies of civil, military and diplomatic passports of the Accused Bagosora between 1990 and 1994); and VI.a (records of judicial proceedings concerning named individuals).⁶ The Chamber dismisses all other document requests as not having been previously sought from the Government of Rwanda on a voluntary basis. This includes requests for the same documents over a broader time period. For example, item III.e seeks ordres de bataille from 1990 to 1994, whereas the previous letters to Rwanda asked only for ordres de batailles on specific dates, namely 1 October 1993 and 1 January 1994. The Chamber will only consider issuing an Article 28 request in respect of documents with those particular dates.⁷

iii) Relevance of Document Requests

9. The motion requests documents dated as early as 1987. In accordance with the Chamber's own decisions concerning oral testimony, documents from prior to 1994 must be shown to be relevant to events in 1994 in order to be admissible.⁸ Although the Defence need not prove that a document will be admissible to make a request for its disclosure, it must at least make a showing that the documents are likely to be relevant to the case. The Chamber considers it obvious that documents created or issued in the months preceding the start of 1994 probably describe policies that may still have been in effect in that year and are, therefore, likely to be relevant. Documents that are said to be dated from July 1993 through July 1994, that is, the ordres de batailles issued on 1 October 1993 or later (categories III.e

⁸ Decision on Admissibility of Proposed Testimony of Witness DBY (TC), 18 September 2003; affirmed, Decision on Prosecutor's Interlocutory Appeals Regarding Exclusion of Evidence (AC), 19 December 2003.

through h) and a letter from the Accused Bagosora dated in February or March 1994 (item III.o), are likely relevant to events in 1994. Editions of the Journaux Officiels dated after July 1993, but not before, are deemed relevant on this basis (item I.c). The document concerning the authority of the chef de cabinet of the Ministry of Defence (III.k), though of a slightly earlier date, will also be requested as being likely relevant.

10. Some evidence has been admitted at trial of events in 1992, which the Prosecution says is probative of an ongoing conspiracy through 1994. Categories II, III.c and IV.a appear to the Chamber to be relevant to these questions and, therefore, the requested period for these documents shall be defined more broadly as January 1992 through July 1994.

11. The Defence has requested a copy of a specific document, a report of a military commission on national security headed by the Accused Bagosora, dated June 1987 (item III.b). In the absence of more specific submissions on the relevance of this document, dated seven years before the events of 1994, the request is disallowed.

iv) Requests for Records of Judicial Proceedings

12. The Chamber has previously directed the Prosecution to request from the Government of Rwanda records of judicial proceedings concerning individuals scheduled to appear as Prosecution witnesses.⁹ Many of the individuals listed in Category VI of the motion are Prosecution witnesses and no further request in respect of those individuals need be made at this stage. Some are not Prosecution witnesses, however, and have been the object of prior Defence requests to the Government of Rwanda, by letters dated 25 October 2001 and 10 June 2003, included in Annex B. Requests in respect of these individuals may now be made under Article 28, for proceedings conducted after July 1994.

v) Conclusion

13. The document requests approved by the Chamber are appended as Annex A.

FOR THE ABOVE REASONS, THE CHAMBER GRANTS THE MOTION IN PART;

DIRECTS the Registrar to transmit the present decision to the Government of Rwanda, and to report back to the Chamber on its implementation;

RESPECTFULLY REQUESTS the Government of Rwanda to determine whether it possesses any of the documents listed in Annex A of this decision and, if so, to transmit them to the Registry as soon as possible for disclosure to the Defence.

Monsieur le Ministre,

Je suis l'avocat principal de Monsieur Théoneste BAGOSORA, Colonel à la retraite des anciennes Forces Armées Rwandaises, actuellement accusé devant le Tribunal Pénal International pour le Rwanda (TPIR) de génocide, crimes contre l'humanité et violations de l'article commun 3 des Conventions de Genève et du Protocole Additionnel.

Il est entre autre reproché à mon client d'avoir joué un rôle central dans la réalisation des massacres qu'a connu le Rwanda d'avril à juillet 1994. De même, l'accusation considère qu'il a dirigé de fait le Rwanda dans la période ayant suivi l'attentat du 6 avril 1994 contre l'avion du Président HABYARIMANA.

De façon à pouvoir assurer une défense adéquate de notre client, il nous est nécessaire de recueillir un certain nombre d'informations ayant trait aux événements qui sont survenus au Rwanda durant la période visée par les actes d'accusation.

Ainsi, nous souhaiterions nous entretenir avec vous, si vous y consentez, ainsi qu'avec le Colonel Deogratias NDIBWAMI employé du MINADEF à condition que vous soyez d'accord et lui également.

(Membre d'une association agréée, les paiements par chèques sont acceptés)

Pour ce dossier, je vous remercie de me répondre à mon adresse de FORT DE FRANCE.

Nous souhaiterions également avoir accès à certaines archives de votre ministère afin de prendre connaissance de certains documents importants incluant :

Notez bien que la présente vous est envoyée à des fins exploratoires, aucune date précise n'ayant été arrêtée pour notre déplacement au Rwanda.

Cependant, dans la mesure où notre équipe se trouve actuellement à Arusha pour une session de procès, j'anvisageais, au cours des premières semaines de juillet 2003, de venir au Rwanda faire une tournée d'approche. Je comprends que le délai est court mais si c'était envisageable, j'en profiterais pour visiter autant de lieux que possible et rencontrer les gens disponibles.

Par ailleurs, afin de compléter les visites de lieux ou les rencontres qui n'auront pu être faites, au vu de leur nombre, j'ai l'intention de refaire un séjour au Rwanda dans un avenir relativement rapproché.

Je vous remercie de l'accueil que vous réserverez à la présente. Par ailleurs, je vous prierai d'adresser votre réponse au soin de Monsieur Adama Dieng, Greffier du Tribunal Pénal International pour le Rwanda, AICC, PO Box 6016, Arusha, Tanzanie.
