THE INTERNATIONAL CRIMINAL TRIBUNAL FOR RWANDA (the “Tribunal”),

SITTING as Judge Khalida Rachid Khan, designated by Trial Chamber II, in accordance with Rule 73 (A) of the Rules of Procedure and Evidence (“the Chamber”);

SEISED of the “Requête de la Défense de Jérôme Bicomumpaka en Émission de Mesures de Protection de Témoins”, filed on 18 May 2005 (the “Motion”);

CONSIDERING

- (1) The “Prosecutor’s Response to Jerome Bicomumpaka’s Motion for Protection of Defence Witnesses”, filed on 24 May 2005 (the “Response”);
- (2) The “Réplique de J. Bicomumpaka à la Réponse du Procureur à Sa Requête pour Mesures de Protection des Témoins - 21 du Statut, 75 du Règlement”, filed on 30 May 2005 (the “Defence Reply”);
- (3) The “Prosecutor’s Consolidated Corrigendum To Prosecutor’s Response to Defence Motions for Protection of Defence Witnesses and Request for Reconsideration of Decision on Prosper Mugiraneza’s Motion for Protection of Defence Witnesses”, filed on 15 June 2005 (“the Corrigendum”);

HEREBY DECIDES the Motion, pursuant to Articles 19, 20, and 21 of the ICTR Statute (the “Statute”) and Rule 75 of the Rules of Procedure and Evidence (the “Rules”).

SUBMISSIONS

Defence Motion

1. The Defence for Jérôme Bicomumpaka seeks an order for the protection of its witnesses on the ground that they have expressed real fears for their safety and for the safety of their families within Rwanda and in neighbouring countries, as well as outside of Africa.
2. The Defence requests protective measures, primarily non-disclosure to the public and the Prosecution of the names and the identifying information of all potential Defence witnesses. According to the Defence, the identifying data shall be disclosed to the Prosecution no sooner than twenty-one days before the testimony of each witness. The Defence asserts that the granting of these measures is consistent with the Accused’s rights and the interests of a fair trial, pursuant to Article 21 of the Statute and Rule 75 of the Rules.

3. The Defence submits, in Paragraph 31(i) of its Motion, that Rule 67(A)(ii)(a) of the Rules (notification of the Defence of alibi and information pertaining to alibi witnesses) should be subject to the requested protective measure to regulate disclosure of witness identities to the Prosecution, under Rule 75 of the Rules.

Prosecution's Response

4. The Prosecution submits that protective measures are to be granted generally on a case-by-case basis.¹ According to the Prosecution, the Defence has not provided current information to demonstrate the objective basis, upon which the witnesses' real fear of danger exists and to which the requested protective measures respond. Therefore, the Prosecution requests that the Chamber require the Defence to provide factual evidence to show that, in view of the current security situation, its witnesses warrant the requested protection.

5. In addition to the submission in Paragraph 4 above, the Prosecution contests one of the proposed measures in the Defence Motion: Paragraph 31(i), concerning alibi witnesses. The Prosecution submits that provisions relating to witness protection measures, under Rule 75 of the Rules, stand independent of alibi disclosure obligations, under Rule 67(A)(ii)(a) of the Rules. The Prosecution asserts that protective measures should not prevent the Accused from discharging his obligations, under Rule 67(A)(ii)(a) of the Rules, to provide notification of the identity of alibi witnesses and any evidence in support of his alibi.

Corrigendum to the Response of the Prosecution to Jérôme Bicomumpaka's Motion

6. In its Corrigendum, the Prosecution seeks to revise its earlier submission, in which it affirmed the Defence request to restrict confidential witness information to members of the immediate Prosecution team.

7. Characterizing the Office of the Prosecutor as a single and indivisible unit, "within which information may flow without restriction", the Prosecution requests the Chamber to deny two protective measures, set forth in Paragraph 31 (f, g), in the Motion. The first of the two measures prohibits the Prosecution from sharing, directly or indirectly, any information which could lead to the identification of a potential Defence witness with any person other than the members of the immediate Prosecution team. The second measure requires the Prosecution to designate all members of the immediate Prosecution team, to provide notification of any change in the composition of that team, and to ensure remission of all relevant information from any member departing from the team.

DELIBERATIONS

(i) Protection Measures

8. By virtue of Article 21 of the Statute, the Tribunal provides in its Rules for the protection of victims and witnesses. Under Rule 75 of the Rules, such protective measures shall include, but shall not be limited to, the conduct of in camera proceedings and the protection of the identity of victims. Rule 75 of the Rules elaborates several specific witness protection measures that may be ordered, including sealing or expunging names and other identifying information that may otherwise appear in the Tribunal's public records, assigning a pseudonym to a witness, and permitting witness testimony in closed session.

9. Established jurisprudence requires that the witnesses for whom protective measures are sought must have a real fear for their safety or for the safety of families and that there must be an objective justification for this fear. In granting protective measures, the Chamber, on a case-by-case basis, must also take into consideration the fairness of the trial and the equality of the Parties.²

10. The Chamber is of the view that the Defence has not provided independent justifying elements to clearly demonstrate that the fears of its potential witnesses are well-founded. However, the Chamber is mindful of its previous decisions regarding protection for Defence witnesses and considers that the evidence of the volatile security situation in Rwanda, and of potential threats against Rwandans living in other countries, indicates that witnesses could justifiably fear that disclosure of their participation in the Tribunal's proceedings would threaten their safety and security.³

(ii) Disclosure Obligations of Alibi Witnesses

11. The Chamber will consider the Defence request on this issue in its Decision on the "Notice of Alibi From the Defence of Jérôme Biamumpaka".

12. With respect to the other protective measures sought by the Defence, the Chamber observes that such measures have normally been granted in previous cases and that they are substantially identical to those ordered in respect of Prosecution witnesses in the present case.⁴ In the Chamber's view, the interests of trial fairness favour the adoption of identical measures, applicable to all protected witnesses, absent exceptional circumstances. These measures are enumerated below in language customarily adopted in witness protection orders.⁵

(iii) Corrigendum to the Response of the Prosecution to Jérôme Bicamumpaka's Motion

13. The Chamber expresses its concern regarding the late submission of a Corrigendum, filed by the Prosecution on 15 June 2005, several weeks after the Motion and the corresponding Response. However, in the interests of justice, the Chamber considers the Prosecution's submissions in the Corrigendum.

14. The Chamber does not agree with the Prosecution's assertion that its duty to investigate and prosecute, its statutory disclosure obligations, and the practicalities of organization require dissemination of confidential witness information to any staff member within the Office of the Prosecutor. As the Tribunal has observed in a decision on a similar motion in Bagasora et al., "Neither the general duty to investigate crimes nor professional collegiality can supersede the specific obligations of a witness protection order, which is itself authorized under Article 21 of the Statute."⁶ The Chamber adopts this reasoning, and considers that the two measures in question, in conjunction with others, are designed to offer substantial protection to potential witnesses who may, in the absence of such measures, be subject to great danger or intimidation and, consequently, may be unwilling to testify before the Tribunal.

15. The Chamber is satisfied that the two measures in question, which limit disclosure of protected witness information to the immediate Prosecution team, strike an appropriate balance between affording security to witnesses and enabling the exercise of the Prosecution's duties.

FOR THE FOREGOING REASONS, THE TRIAL CHAMBER

GRANTS the Motion for Protection Measures in the following terms:

- (a) The names, addresses, whereabouts of, or/and other identifying information concerning potential Defence witnesses should be sealed by the Registry and are not to be included in any records of the Tribunal;
