520/H

THE APPEALS CHAMBER of the International Criminal Tribunal for the Prosecution of Persons Responsible for Genocide and Other Serious Violations of International Humanitarian Law Committed in the Territory of Rwanda and Rwandan Citizens Responsible for Genocide and Other Such Violations Committed in the Territory of Neighbouring States, between 1 January and 31 December 1994 ("Tribunal");

RECALLING the Scheduling Order issued on 20 July 2009 which set the date of the appeal hearing in this case for Monday, 28 September 2009, in Arusha, Tanzania;

EMPHASIZING that the present order in no way expresses the Appeals Chamber's views on the merits of the appeal;

HEREBY INFORMS the parties that, during the course of the appeal hearing in addition to other matters advanced by the parties in their submissions or that the Appeals Chamber may wish to raise, they are invited to:

- (i) develop their submissions on the Trial Chamber's assessment of the alibi, specifically in comparison to other cases of the Tribunal and of the International Criminal Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia where the Appeals Chamber has considered the issue of alibi; and
- (ii) discuss, with references to the record, the feasibility of travel along the route between Kigali and Gisenyi Prefecture via Ruhengeri prefecture during the relevant period related to the events at Kesho Hill and the Kiyovu Roadblock.

Done in English and French, the English version being authoritative.

Done this 27th day of August 2009,
At The Hague,
The Netherlands.
