1. On 28 June 2011, a Referral Bench rendered its decision in the case of Jean Uwinkindi ("Uwinkindi Referral Decision") referring the case to the Republic of Rwanda for trial. The Defence has since appealed the Uwinkindi Referral Decision.
2. On 7 August 2011, the Civil Society and Political Organisation of Rwanda ("Applicant") filed an application ("Application") requesting the President to place on certain additional information on the file of this case.¹
3. With the issuance of the Uwinkindi Referral Decision, the Referral Bench became functus officio. The Appeals Chamber is now seized of the case.² The President also does not have any jurisdiction in this matter. Accordingly, the Application, as presently filed, is dismissed. The President expresses no opinion on its merits.

FOR THE ABOVE REASONS, THE PRESIDENT

DISMISSES the Application without prejudice to the Applicant.

REQUESTS the Registry to circulate the Application to the Parties and transmit this Decision to the Applicant.
