THE APPEALS CHAMBER of the International Criminal Tribunal for the Prosecution of Persons Responsible for Genocide and Other Serious Violations of International Humanitarian Law Committed in the Territory of Rwanda and Rwandan Citizens Responsible for Genocide and Other Such Violations Committed in the Territory of Neighbouring States, between 1 January and 31 December 1994 ("Appeals Chamber" and "Tribunal", respectively);

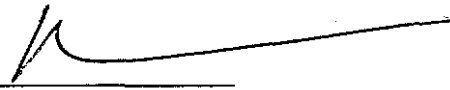

RECALLING the Scheduling Order issued on 18 November 2011, which set the date of the appeals hearing in this case for 14 December 2011;

EMPHASISING that the present order in no way expresses the Appeals Chamber's views on the merits of the appeals;

HEREBY INFORMS Gaspard Kanyarukiga ("Kanyarukiga") and the Prosecution that, during the course of the appeal hearing, in addition to other matters advanced in their submissions or that the Appeals Chamber may wish to raise, they are invited to discuss, with references to the record, whether the conversation between Kanyarukiga and Fulgence Kayishema on the evening of 15 April 1994 should have been pleaded in the Amended Indictment, whether a defect in this respect, if any, was cured, and whether Kanyarukiga suffered prejudice as a result of any such defect.

Done in English and French, the English version being authoritative.

Done this 9th day of December 2011,
At The Hague,
The Netherlands.

Patrick Robinson
Presiding Judge
