INTRODUCTION

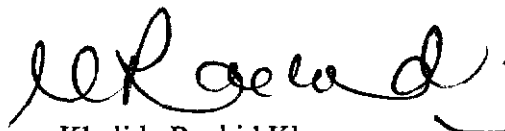

1. The Chamber recalls its Scheduling Order of 27 December 2011, in which it instructed the Duty Counsel representing the interests of the fugitive Accused, Charles Sikubwabo, to file, by 1 February 2012, a consolidated response to the Prosecutor's request for the transfer of the case to the courts of Rwanda.¹ In the same Scheduling Order, the Chamber also directed the Prosecutor to file a reply, if any, by 8 February 2012.
2. Noting that the Duty Counsel had failed to comply with the Scheduling Order, and mindful of the Prosecutor's request for appropriate orders,² the Chamber contacted the Duty Counsel informally in order to ascertain the reasons for his failure to comply. Finding that there was a breakdown in communication between the Tribunal and the Duty Counsel, the Chamber decides, proprio motu, to grant the Duty Counsel additional time to file his consolidated response. Consequently, the Chamber also grants the Prosecutor an extension of time to file his reply, if any.

FOR THESE REASONS, THE CHAMBER:

DIRECTS the Duty Counsel to file his consolidated response to the Prosecutor's request for the referral of the case and the related amici curiae briefs by 21 February 2012; and DIRECTS the Prosecutor to file his reply, if any, to the Duty Counsel's consolidated response by 29 February 2012.

Arusha, 15 February 2012.

Khalida Rachid Khan
